

"The Shop Girl."

(Continued from First Page)

large of a misdemeanor against Mr. Severson is ready to file a similar complaint against Mack.

The warrant issued by the District Attorney's office was on the complaint of Mrs. Leverett, manager of the Maryland Hotel, which Garrison, where she charged that Swain had taken a check for $5 on the branch of the Bank of the Americas when he had no funds.

And then there is J. H. Garrison, who is accused of having embezzled to occur a warden on the charge of being made assistant editor of being made assistant editor of the San Francisco Daily Times. After all, he could not afford to do so.

The Shop Girl, if he could not afford to do so, would do so submitted to him.

After all, he could not afford to do so.

Then comes the large force of employees and solicitors,

with their tales of woe as to whether anything promising awaits the outcome of their legal actions, but are not entirely hopeful.

SHOP GIRL PICNIC

Affairs at The Shop Girl appear to have been suffering financial depression for some time.

The men and women who work there, however, with the police and the public, hold a shop girl picnic every year.

They demand their pay. They may be paid off from time to time, and the business Manager Swain concocts a brilliant scheme. He plans a "shop girl" picnic for last Sunday evening, and the proceeds will go to the shop girl to boost it, and the amount paid out of the proceeds will be square up with all hands Sunday night.

The day and night forces of the city police, armed with rifles, patrolled the banks of the Rio Grande River. The sheriff and his deputies notified every community in the country.

From Juarez came rumors that seventeen cavalrymen at Brownwood, Texas, have been killed in an uprising and that Brownwood, Texas, was captured. These were disproved early today.

The rumor of the alleged plot was brought to the Department of Justice representatives early in the evening by a visitor who apparently seemed to substantiate his story. The Department of Justice representatives notified Gen. John J. Pershing, commanding the 1st Cavalry at Fort Bliss.

Meanwhile the check on the bank account of the shop girl, the other day, it is said, was sent to Mrs. Mack took their deposit about 11 o'clock Saturday evening to one heard from them so far as the authorities know.

WOMAN'S FINERY STORE.

Either a woman, or a man with a coaching wife, is believed responsible for two burglaries in the downtown shopping district yesterday. The first, in the morning, No. 405 Broadway, was entered, and the second, about the same time later, the Nails Building, No. 498 South Broadway, and $240 in money and garments taken. Such a detail was reported by the police, and the police believe that the owner, a woman, did the damage.

Meanwhile shots were fired by the policemen in halting Mexican in the lower quarters of the city, in order to search them.

TO INVADE SERVIA VIA BULGARIA.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Telegraphing from Bucharest, the correspondent of the Times says reports have been received from many quarters to the effect that the Austro-German army, which are being concentrated along the northern bank of the Danube for the projected invasion of Servia will enter that country via Widin, Belogradchik and Sofia.

The Times' correspondent declares he has reason to believe the Serbian government has been notified of this intended aggression and the admonition that opposition would be futile and the suggestion that it co-operate with the central powers.

RUSSIA RECOVERS FROM SHELL CRISIS.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Aug. 26, 2:52 a.m.—The shell crisis in Russia is according to an announcement made by Chairman Shingareff of Duma defense committee, to the Daily Chronicle's Petrograd representative.

The quantity of munitions, the statement continues, has been more than double and all necessary supplies are going forward.

The Russian army is in splendid condition, it is said, and the stability of the internal administration is gradually being adapted to new conditions.

The word "evacuation," says the correspondent, "is losing its meaning in the minds of the people, who are beginning to regard the somewhat protracted nobility as a feasible military scheme."

The Daily Mail's Petrograd correspondent also telegraphs in an optimistic vein. He says a new phase of the Russian operations is beginning in which the Russians will have two useful allies,

Russia and France.

Dardanelles.

FRESH BRITISH TROOPS LANDED AT GALLIPOLI.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON HEADQUARTERS ON first two elevations on the Aegean shore, while to the south, it runs parallel with the shore for about 2000 yards and then joins the Aji Burnu front. Most of the British trenches lie on low ridges, on an elevation averaging 600 feet.

Kodjatchemen Mountain presents for the British an unusually difficult problem. The Turkish division attacked the position of Kodjatchemen, held it, and after their retirement. Since then the British have subjected Kodjatchemen almost daily to terrific gun fire from the ships.

WAR HORSES FOR FRANCE. (30)

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26.—French

army officers today began examining

$1,000 horses purchased for war service. They range in price from $150 to $200, and the entire contract will involve more than $7,000,000.

The animals are being shipped also by land to the interior of the country.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

news of the day.

It is a mistake to jump to the

conclusion that all or

the more important news is to be found on the first page.

Read the Index and Summary, then read the entire

VIOLATION OF BELGIUM DELIBERATE, SAYS GREY.

British Secretary Replies to the Statement of the German Chancellor.

Declares Charge that Little Kingdom Trafficked Neutrality with England Untrue and Quotes Passages from Kaiser's Ministers' Speeches to Prove that the Teutons had to Destroy King Albert's Army.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Aug. 25.—Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Minister, tonight gave to the press a letter in answer to the speech delivered last week in the Reichstag by the German Chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg. In the letter Sir Edward says that he replies only to some points in the speech which may be suitably dealt with, pending a fuller review of the situation in some more appropriate manner at another time.

Strong denial is made by the Foreign Minister that Belgium trafficked her neutrality with the allies and the declaration is made that Germany herself deliberately violated the neutrality of the kingdom. In this connection Sir Edward says there has been nothing more "despicably mean" than Germany's attempt to justify her invasion of Belgium by "bringing against the innocent Belgian government the charge of having plotted against Germany."

With regard to the attempts before the war to bring about a conference to settle the dispute, the letter says that though Germany did not enter the conference it did not decide Great Britain's participation in the war, but it did decide the question of peace or war and "signed the death warrant for the many hundreds of thousands who have been killed in this war."

"There are some points in the speech of the German Chancellor made last week, the letter says, "which must be surely dealt with in a letter to the press pending a full review of the situation, which may be appropriate in some other method and at some other time."

"One Belgian record, a conversation with the British military attaches, was published by the press last autumn, to prove that Belgium had trafficked her neutrality with us, and was, in effect, in plot with us against Germany. The conversation, of which the man who had made me, was not surely dealt with in a letter to the press pending a full review of the situation, which may be appropriate in some other method and at some other time."

"Our Belgian record, a conversation with the British military attaches, was published by the press last autumn to prove that Belgium had trafficked her neutrality with us, and was, in effect, in plot with us against Germany. The conversation, of which the man who had made me, was not surely dealt with in a letter to the press pending a full review of the situation, which may be appropriate in some other method and at some other time."

"There are some points in the speech of the German Chancellor made last week, the letter says, "which must be surely dealt with in a letter to the press pending a full review of the situation, which may be appropriate in some other method and at some other time."

"The entry of the British into Belgium would take place only after violation of Belgian territory by Germany and that did not concern the British government. No convention or agreement existed between the British and Belgian governments."

"Why does the German Chancellor mention these informal conversations with the German Ambassador on April 19, 1912? I told the Belgian Minister most emphatically that we desired in the case of Belgium, as with other neutral countries, that their neutrality should be respected and so long as it was not violated by any power we should certainly not send troops ourselves into their territory."

"Let it be remembered that the first use made by Germany of the Belgian document was to charge Germany with bad faith to Germany."

THE TRUE STORY.

"What is the true story? On the 29th of July, 1914, the German Chancellor tried to bribe us by promises of future Belgian independence to become a party to the violation of Belgian neutrality by Germany. On the outbreak of the war he described the Belgian as a 'crown jewel of our empire,' and the German Foreign Secretary explained that Germany must go through Belgium to attack France because she could not afford the time to do otherwise. The statement of Herr von Jagow is worth quoting again:

"The imperial government had to advance into France by the quickest and easiest way so as to be able to get well ahead with the operations and endeavor to strike some decisive blow as early as possible. It was a matter of life and death with them, if they had gone by the more southern route they could not have hoped in view of the strength of the fortresses, to have got through without formidable opposition, and the greater part of the time of time would have meant time gained by the Russians for bringing up their troops to the German frontier. Rapidity of action was the great German asset, while that of Russia was an enormous supply of troops."

"In the Balkans too, on the 4th of August, 1914, the German Chancellor stated in referring to the violation of the neutrality of Belgium and Luxembourg:

"The wrong, I speak openly, the wrong we then committed we will try to make up as soon as our military aims have been attained."

ACT WAS DELIBERATE.

"The violation of Belgian neutrality, therefore, was deliberate, although Germany had actually guaranteed that neutrality and surely there has been nothing more despicably mean than the attempt to justify it by bringing against the innocent Belgian government and people the totally false charge of having plotted against Germany."

"The German Chancellor does not emphasize the last speech that charge which has been most broadcast against Belgium. It is withdrawn; and if so, will Germany make reparation for the cruel wrong done to Belgium?"

"The negotiations for an Anglo-German agreement in 1912, referred to by the German Chancellor, were brought to a point at which it was clear they could have no success unless we, in effect, gave a promise of absolute neutrality while Germany remained free under her alliance to the British Empire."

ST. PAUL BRINGING ARABIC SURVIVORS.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The American line steamer St. Paul, which sailed for New York from Liverpool today, had on board a number of survivors of the Arabic.

Visiting all the berths on the St. Paul were occupied. A number of passengers who had engaged accommodations, however, cancelled their passage at the last moment owing to the poor condition of the ship. The acute relations between the United States and Germany arising from the sinking of the Arabic.

Serbia Replies to Allies.

(Continued from First Page.)

of retreat from the Bug, while Field Marshal Von Mackensen and Prince Leopold of Bavaria continue their efforts to envelop Brest-Litovsk. As far as the Balkans are concerned, several lines of retreat open to him, and his rear guards have shown their ability to hold off the Austro-Germans until their retirement was effected. Military writers here do not believe this plan will succeed.

TIRED OF TALK;
ACTION NEEDED.

PRESIDENT HILD OF THE PEACE FORUM SAYS WE MUST ARM OURSELVES.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.), Aug. 25.—In an address today to the national fraternal conference, in session here, Dr. John Wesley Hill, president of the International Peace Forum, New York City, told delegates the nation must arm itself to meet the emergency of the fifth of September, 1914, did I say anything so ridiculous or untrue as that it was in the interest of Germany that we had gone to war and with the object of restraining Russia?

The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The world would have been averted if the conference had been agreed to me, not even when we were perfectly free, when Japan, who was our ally, had not entered the war and when we were not pledged to the other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament of the fifth of September, 1914, did I say anything so ridiculous or untrue as that it was in the interest of Germany that we had gone to war and with the object of restraining Russia?"

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far as it goes.

"The public is tired of talk; it wants action. For these last six months the International Peace Forum has been at work crystallizing the position of the neutral nations, and other allies as we are, in favor of disarmament. The world, this Hague conference in 1907, Arbitration does not go far enough, although it is good as far

TAKE DASH
UGHT FLEET*States See Atlantic Sham Battle.*Secretary Daniels, Cruise of ing and Many of Them
Our Navy in Action—At ms are Advocated.*AND A. P.*overnment from the hands of the people.CONSERVATION."Conservation" was the subject of the second formal address of the Senate which was delivered by the Chairman of New York. The speech maintained that the Senate did not prevent the treaty from being ratified by the United States. The Senate protested vigorously, however, against such a limit in the extension of the law as an instance where the federal government found it necessary to extend and save the birds from the ravages of the forest.*TOO MANY GOVERNORS*Gov. Winfield S. Hammel of Illinois, who spoke on "Education and Economy in State Government," said that the reason for the present situation was that there were too many governors instead of one. Enumerating the various state commissions and bureaus which have come into being as a part of the executive department, he said:*"All that has resulted in giving one state not one Governor, but a number of Governors, one of whom is appointed by American agents in the ten customhouses three times as much as the others."*GOVERNOR SAYS FORMER BOSS PICKED OUT HIS OWN
RESIDENCE.*BY A. P. DAY WIRE]*SACRAMENTO, Aug. 25.—Gov.
Johnson today, in commenting upon the recent action of the San Quentin State Prison, made it plain that the former San Francisco governor was not "exiled" to Mendocino county by the Board of Prison Directors, but at his own request, designated the county as his place of residence. The Governor says:*"For two years past it has been repeatedly stated that Ruel will be treated exactly like every other man in San Quentin, whether more leniently or more harshly."The prison directors, notwithstanding the agitation in his behalf, required him, as they required all others, except in extraordinary cases, to serve his full sentence, and then was paroled."Frankenburger, who has a wife and several children, is the example.
"San Francisco newspapers have endeavored to make it appear that he was treated differently than other men in San Quentin, but he has never been able to prove that his residence in Mendocino county could be due to an arrangement with the authorities, as he bears to the court and the judicial departments as independent of each other. He has no ambition to be Governor, but his successor, so if one of the members should resign, he would appoint his successor, as he does about as much to do with the affairs of the world as he does with the work of these bodies.*"There is little or no co-operation between these various bodies. No ectors, examiners, investigation and employees of these various agencies have no time to spend in prompting this protection of the public interest.*He further added, that, of course, the arrangement would have been taken over by Rear-Admiral*WILLIAMSON.*DECLARES RUEF WAS NOT EXILED.*BY A. P. DAY WIRE]*WICHITA, Aug. 25.—Gov.
Williamson, in commenting upon the recent action of the San Quentin State Prison, made it plain that the former San Francisco governor was not "exiled" to Mendocino county by the Board of Prison Directors, but at his own request, designated the county as his place of residence. The Governor says:*"The only comment I would make on the part is that despite pressure by the press, the majority of the prison directors have demonstrated that they will treat all who may be confined by the State with absolute impartiality, and the same rules will apply to all alike."He will visit September 1 the various commercial bureaus in the United States to facilitate Russian trade.(Continued on Fourth Page.)*MEAT RATES.*Railroad Charges on Cars Is Disapproved by Commission.*BY A. P. DAY WIRE]*WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The Commerce Commission disapproves the increase in the freight rates in the rules governing packing-house products, meat, other articles in so-called cars, in southwestern*states.*Each car is an load, car, loaded with meat, which stops at several points for removal of por-*tion, on its way to*the market.*WE ARE NEUTRAL.*BY A. P. DAY WIRE]*DETROIT, Aug. 25.—President Wilson signed a proclamation notifying the neutral status of the United States in the war between Russia and Turkey. The proclamation includes the lines of others already in-*terested.*DEMOCRACY TEST FOR ALL VOTERS.*BY A. P. DAY WIRE]*NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A proposal to the State Convention that all voters be required to read and write English, was the order of final passage of the Constitutional Convention by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the
order of final pas-*sage of the Constitutional Conven-*tion by a vote of 70 to 61.*The measure was
passed by the smallest margin
during the last session, and
held up on a freight train at Elk
Point, S. D. today. The men resisted*the proposal included*the proposal to require
that all voters be required to
read and write English, was the order of final pas-

The Times Free Information Bureau
619 South Spring Street

THE TIMES FREE INFORMATION AND RESORT BUREAU is for the accommodation and information seeking, the advertising route of travel, desirable hotels and restaurants, and information concerning the activities in Los Angeles.

Particulars are furnished by competent attendants and by correspondence, to the general public regarding rates and attractions of railroads, steamship lines, hotel accommodations and other services. Photo-views, descriptive circulars and transportation literature are kept on hand for inspection and distribution. Times readers can obtain here a copy of the "Times Guide," without the delay incident in mailing it. All the information is given in full detail, and the service is free. The service is free. The literature also may be obtained at the New Times Building, Broadway at First street.

TELEGRAMS COMING THIS MORNING VISITING LOS ANGELES ARE PRIVILEGED TO HAVE THEIR MAIL ADDRESSED TO THE BUREAU.

Resorts

New Arlington Hotel Santa Barbara, California

3 KINDS OF GOLF

Nine-Hole Links on Hope Ranch
Twelve-Hole Links on Hotel Grounds
Indoor Golf Inside Of Hotel

AN ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF HOTEL—ALL OUTSIDE ROOMS, APPROPRIATE PLACES OF THE WORLD'S FINEST HOTELS. CONVENIENT POSITION WITH ALL ROOMS IDEAL CLIMATE THE YEAR ROUND. AUTOMOBILE ROAD IS NOW PERFECT. ONE HOUR RUN LOS ANGELES TO SANTA BARBARA. UNUSUAL FEATURES FACILITIES FOR GOLFERS. HOTEL GROUNDS LOW SUMMER RATES NOW IN EFFECT. 2 DOWNS, LINGER FULL PARTICULARS FOR A SAFE AND PLEASANT VACATION. THE SERVICE IS EXCELLENT. LITERATURE ALSO MAY BE OBTAINED AT THE NEW TIMES BUILDING, BROADWAY AT FIRST STREET.

TELEGRAMS COMING THIS MORNING VISITING LOS ANGELES ARE PRIVILEGED TO HAVE THEIR MAIL ADDRESSED TO THE BUREAU.

Spend A Few Days At Hotel Virginia American Plan Aesthetically Fireproof

Plan to spend your vacation at this magnificent resort. The unique and distinctive service has given it a well-known and famous reputation. Accommodations now over 400 guests. Attractive tarif.

Santa Catalina Island
California's Great Fishing Resort—Grand Combination of Mountains and Sea.
DELIGHTFUL CLIMATE

CANVAS CITY—Tents for Housekeeping in shady groves ISLAND VILLA—A Canvas Hotel—European Plan.
BAND CONCERT every evening and DANCING in pavilion every evening except Sunday, given to patrons of WILMINGTON TRANSPORTATION COMPANY—BANNING LINE.

For folders, reliable information and reservations, apply to BANNING COMPANY, Agents
104 (Main Entrance) PACIFIC ELECTRIC BUILDING
Phones: Main 35-1084.

"NEVER FAILING COOL SEA BREEZES" Stratford Inn
A DEL MAR "The Sport Beautiful"
A hotel in a garden, amid beautifully wooded hills, and commanding a magnificent view of ocean, mountains and valleys—
BATHING AND SALT WATER PLUNGES; DREDG SEA-SURF FISHING; HUNTING! GOLFING! TENNIS! DANCING AND OTHER DIVERSIONS.
Write for Booklet and Tariffs
Santa Fe by Train—(Del Mar, San Diego County)—Coast Road by Motor

PASO ROBLES HOT SPRINGS
CALIFORNIA'S FAMOUS INLAND WATERING RESORT.
An oasis from Southern California, to San Francisco exposition, stop-over at world-famous Paso Robles. 3 hours ride from San Jose. 1½ hour west stop for all automobile parties touring the Coast line. Today, stop-over price, dinner, $1.50, room and Pullman tickets. Natural Hot Sulphur and Lithia Waters; mammals, avian, floral, mineral, geological, astronomical, meteorological, medical, scientific diversions; golf; beautiful drives, 5 acres beautiful grounds. Splendid hotel. Ample room, meals. Special rates to large parties and excursion.

STOP REPORT AT THE MERRITT JONES HOTEL, Ocean Park

RADIUM SULPHUR SPRINGS
National Radio-Active Mineral Water
IT SPARKLES AND FOAMS LIKE CHAMPAGNE.
Hot Baths and Treatments cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Poor Circulation, Stomach, Liver, Kidney, Diabetes, Bright, Blurred Vision, Headaches, Nervousness, Free. Water delivered. Food for Booklet. Avenue Awestore Direct to Springs, Los Angeles.

Sulphur Mountain Springs
via Santa Paula, Cal.
base of San Fernando Boulevard via Saugus. Deep forest of giant pine trees, Oaks and wild Walnut trees. Tent houses and cottages beautiful trout streams. $1 to $1 per day; $1.50 to $7 per week for housekeeping cottages. Dining room, Delicatessen and Grocery Store; Hot and Cold Sulphur Baths. Plunge, Billiard Room, Bowling Alley, Tennis Court, Electric Lights. Auto stage meets S. P. trains at Santa Paula by appointment. Railroad and stage fare from Los Angeles, $1.75.

SEVEN OAKS
auto trip via Santa Ana Canyon from Redlands direct. Stage leaves daily at 10:00 A.M. Everything for autoists. Rooms on demand. Log Cabin Plan; general dining room, restaurant, billiard room, bowling alley, tennis court, electric lights, etc. Phone 2052 Redlands.

Glenn Ranch Mountain Resort—West of San Bernardino. Altitude 5200 feet. Products of ranch gardens, dairy and orchards utilized. Mountain air, pure water, fine food. Automobiles built by Posthill Blvd. and Edwards. Giant Ranch dairy auto stage leaves Stewart Hotel, San Bernardino, at 4 p.m., June 15th to Oct. 1st, or late Glenn Ranch stage leaves San Bernardino at 4 p.m., June 15th to Oct. 1st, or late. Stage leaves San Bernardino or Glenn Ranch Resort, P. O. Kreskrook, Calif. Telephone San Bernardino 2141.

Forest Home A "REAL" Mountain Resort
PERFECT ROADS—MODERN ACCOMMODATIONS—A GOOD TIME.
TIMES—SECURITY BANK—PECK-JUDAH INFORMATION BUREAU.

$21.00 Beverly Hills Hotel and Bungalows
Midway between LOS ANGELES and SANTA MONICA BEACH
Per week Room and Board. Home 5492; Sunset 646.

Sturtevant's Camp
Fruit and vegetables. Dining-room for those who want to board. Main 5441; 254-4 2nd St. 6 a.m. daily. Write or phone J. M. Beard, Sierra Madre, Cal.

Mt. Wilson
Elevation 8000 feet. Cafe, Bungalows, and Strain's Camp. Fine auto road open to public. Furnished housekeeping and sleeping tents, store, cafeteria, croquet, dancing and other amusements. Auto stage from Los Angeles and Pasadena. Phone 24-72; also Peck-Judah, 621 E. Spring.

Hoegee's Camp
Now open in the beautiful Santa Anita Canyon. Made from fine woods. Located on the Sturtevant Trail. Furnished tents, one dining-room and every facility for rest, recreation and pleasure. Literature 224 E. Third or Three Information Bureau, 619 South Spring St.

Mt. Lowe
Scenic Wonderland Trip of America $2
DAILY EXCURSION FARE. FIVE TRIPS DAILY.
TICKETS FROM AGENTS, LOS ANGELES, MAIN ST. STATION.

Naval Sham Battle.

(Continued from Second Page.)

and should be under the control and direction of the executive himself or his officers selected by him. My predecessor in office appointed a commission of thirty citizens of the State, known as the Efficiency and Economy Commission. They were asked to make a study of our system of State government and to suggest changes needed, to make that government an efficient one and as economical one.

The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No one knows exactly who is to blame if work is badly done. No one is responsible for legislative and judicial work. They are useful to give advice. They are not suited to administrative tasks. Moreover, under the board system the Governor has little control over the administration. The board members usually have overlapping terms. Each Governor appoints only a minority. Each board is a government by itself.

"There can be no objection to the establishment of boards and commissions picked from the citizenry of the commonwealth for their intelligence, ability and worth, cannot but be of great benefit to public officials and to the State itself, but their duties ought to be advisory and not executive."

The plan proposed in Minnesota was to consolidate all of these offices and divisions of government in five or six departments each with a director appointed by the Governor and responsible to him for the conduct of his department, but it met defeat in the Legislature.

"The members of this body made a report to the last Legislature and presented a proposed bill for enactment.

"Referring to the board system, the commission said:

"Students in political science are all agreed that executive work should be done by individuals and not by boards. This is the opinion held by the Governor and recommended by him to the Legislature. It dissipates responsibility. No

THURSDAY MORNING.

Pacific Slope.Jeff Put the Reverse English on Mutt's Joke!

(Copyright, 1915, by H. C. Fisher)

By Bud Fisher.Raise.
AN ULTIMATUM
TO THE UNION.*Granite Cutters are Offered Increase in Wages.*Arbitration also Proposed Rejected by Strikers.Men Try to Enforce the Old Rule or Ruin Policy.(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH—SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF
THE TIMES, AUG. 25.—The Granite Manufacturers' Association of California yesterday delivered an ultimatum to the California branches of the Granite Cutters' International Association of America, now on strike. The big involved are the new City Hall of San Francisco, approximating $1,000,000 in value, and the proposed new factory, with granite work appre ciable, worth $400,000, and the Benjamin Wheeler Hall at the University of California, involving an expense of $200,000.*JAMES I. THE granite workers are trying to union branches at Los Angeles, Raymond, San Jose and San Francisco quit work, following the order of the employers to increase their wages to 70 cents an hour, or $3.60 a day. Since that time the San Francisco Hall has been set up to receive the new library and the Benjamin Ide Wheeler Hall have no notice on the contractors that they assured that granite work was obtained within a reasonable time and that the new material will be substituted for two buildings.*The employers' ultimatum, say E. A. Weisenberg to James I. The stone, president, and T. R. Farn mons, secretary of the San Francisco branch of employees. Instead of an immediate flat rate of 70 cents an hour the employers declare they will raise wages as follows: 5% to June 1, 1916; 10% to December 1, 1916;
15 cents an hour from January 1, 1917;
20 cents an hour from January 1, 1918;
25 cents an hour from January 1, 1919;
30 cents an hour from January 1, 1920.
A five-year agreement is proposed.*DEMANDS DENIED.*The employers have rejected the union's demands that the union shall have the right to choose whom it shall be employed in order in which they shall apply for work, and that discharged employees shall have the right to appeal to union adjusting committee, whose decision shall be final.*The employers also insist that the arbitration agreement shall be observed—each disputant in the future name three arbitrators, and the entire arbitrator to be selected by the original six. Under this arrangement, there shall be no lockout or suspension of work. The granite cutters rejected the proposal arbitration clause.*When the cutters quit work they left behind them a strike of 100 where cutters were receiving 45 cents an hour and after July 1, 1916, 50 cents an hour.*TRADES ENDANGERED.In a statement made with the union's demands, the union and the Barre, steelmen, employers say:"Weather conditions in Cali fornia permit men to work in the winter in any other section of the country, if the earning power of a cutter in this State is greater than elsewhere. Through various engagements in this State have been obtained in many lines of work which greatly destroy the welfare of the various trades men day in addition to the conditions demanded, still re quiring the continuance of the strike as a building material."*IGNIS SPRECKELS DECREE.*Judge Graham of San Fran cisco and Fict is Cabled to Re quest the Barre, steelmen, where license is issued.*BY A. P. DAY WIRE.*GRANADA (Bolivia) Aug. 25.—Sixteen Mexicans KILLED IN HOUSE.*BY A. P. DAY WIRE.*GRANADA (Bolivia) Aug. 25.—Sixteen Mexicans were killed in a house in the city of Granada, capital of the department of Chuquisaca, yesterday.*BY A. P. DAY WIRE.*GRANADA (Bolivia) Aug. 25.—Sixteen Mexicans were killed in a house in
the city of Granada, capital of the department of Chuquisaca, yesterday.*RUSSIAN MAKES FLIGHT.*Col. Lvov, of Czar's Army and to the American Aero Corp North Island, San Diego, Calif.,*BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.*SAN DIEGO, Aug. 25.—The First United States Cavalry rangers and their officers, who had been captured by the Russians, were released yesterday.*BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.*LADEN LODGES
ANOTHER PROTEST.*BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.*STOCKHOLM (Sweden) Aug. 25.—
Another protest has*been made to the German government*against the German government*for the damage he made to the Swedish steamer Gotland, which*was taken into Cuxhaven*by the Germans. The Swedish gov ernment, he said, to the steamer car and equipment to this afternoon.*SOOPS' FAMILIES GET HUGE SUM.*BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.*LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—In sentencing*for fraud in connection with*the advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the
soaps' families*Business Chances,"*The Times' "line" series*Opportunity knocks,*but in vain, for those who
are day after day, ready*like advantage of the soaps' families

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD.

Willis Itinerary Changed.

Word that the itinerary of Gov. Frank R. Willis of Ohio had been changed so that he will arrive here October 8, was received yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce from the Governor's secretary.

To Hold Congress.

President Bulis of the Chamber of Commerce was authorized by the directorate yesterday to appoint delegates to the American Road Congress, which will be held at Oakland, September 14-18, under the auspices of the American Road Builders Association, and to the International Irrigation Congress the same month.

Two Park Concerts.

Two concerts will be given in the Los Angeles parks this evening. At Westlake Park the Los Angeles Park Band will give a popular programme of lively music at 8:30 p.m. Mr. McLean, of Echo Park's "vocal and instrumental recital will be given by McLean's Jubilee Quartette, colored entertainers. The same organization will give another recital at Echo Park tomorrow evening.

Wizard Window.

A disappearing window is the latest thing in Broadway. It is not a portion of the paraphernalia of a magician, but is now being installed in the front of the Wiley H. Allen Company store. The surface is so curved the glass completely vanishes and the window appears to contain nothing good on display. It is useless for ladies who adjust their hats by reflection from the ordinary plate glass. In addition, the company is remodeling the entire front and interior of the establishment.

A FRIEND AT COURT.

Ex-Senator Burton Hintz He May be in a Position to Help Our Harbor Some Time in the Future.

"Any time that I can help you call on me, for it is a pleasure to help those who help themselves," said former Senator Theodore E. Burton of Ohio, yesterday, as he was taking a train for Salt Lake after seeing the harbor.

Unstinted praise of the harbor and its facilities were voiced by the Ohio statesman, with particular reference to the developments that have taken place since his last visit, four years ago. Senator Burton was accompanied by Dr. J. Scott of the Chamber of Commerce.

Former Senator Burton displayed at the same time both his courtesy and his love of knowledge, when, at his own request, Dr. Scott met him at the depot at 7:15 o'clock yesterday.

The statesman was on his way to Salt Lake from San Diego, and broke his journey so that he might visit Los Angeles harbor. During his visit here last Monday and Tuesday, he was unable to see the great ocean gateway.

Dr. Scott entertained his guest at breakfast in the rooms of the Sierra Madre Club, and then started out for the harbor. Mr. Burton, the physician and statesman, made a thorough inspection of the port.

"You have a port here that is worthy of improvement," Mr. Burton said. "Although I am out of political life right now, I may re-enter it at some distant date. However, politically or otherwise, when I do, I shall use whatever influence I possess to aid you in bettering your harbor."

DISAGREE SEVERAL WAYS.

Husband Who Tells of Happy Home Seeking Wife Who Hides from Him in Reverses of the City Jail.

Gus Schots came in high distress to the police station yesterday, beseeching aid in finding his girl wife, Pauline, who had disappeared from the family residence, No. 712 Alpine street. The detectives were assigned to help find the girl at once and started in search.

All the time Pauline was in the City Jail, enjoying peace and lodging at her own request. She said that Pauline Galloway's husband to her and she didn't like him; so she left him, and the only place she had to go for a bed was the jail. So she applied to the juvenile bureau for lodgings and was placed in the woman's ward. She was having a good time, visiting the visitors, doing fancy work at the hour her excited husband was telling what might have happened to his beautiful girl wife, to whom he was so attached. He said they were absolutely happy in their home, and he could not bear the thought of her absence. The girl showed the matron some bruises on her plump arms.

She left the jail yesterday in care of the juvenile officers, who are going to have a conference with the husband.

—and the Worst Is Yet to Come

MORE CARS FOR TRAFFIC RUSH.

EMPTY COACHES BEING RUSHED HERE FROM CHICAGO.

Coming of School Season Sets Tourists' Faces Eastward—Many Parties Here on Special Tours and Others are Due—Tennesseans and College People in Van.

Empty passenger equipment to relieve traffic congestion is being rushed westward by the railroads on limited schedules.

"We are bringing three trains of empty Pullmans from Chicago for extra sections of the California Limited," said Assistant General Passenger Agent Held of the Santa Fe yesterday. "The approaching opening of the school season is causing a heavy eastbound traffic."

More than 250 tourists from Nashville arrived Tuesday morning and are staying at the Roslyn. About 150 are taking the Radnor Tour and the remainder are touring under the direction of the Hill agency. The tourists have been spending their time sightseeing in Pasadena, Eagle Rock, Hollywood and other near-by points of interest, including Catalina Island and the beaches. The Radnor party will leave for San Diego and the Hill party tonight for San Francisco.

Thirty young men and women students from universities and colleges in the mid-West, who arrived here before last, were joined yesterday by students from other eastern schools. The entire party is staying at the Roslyn. The tour taken by the students was arranged by the Bureau of Usurers Travel by Bus, and includes visits to the oppositions, Grand Canyon and other points of interest. The party will stay here several days.

Two special train parties are due from the West Saturday. One party of about 150 persons are traveling under the auspices of the Alexander Tour Company and the other, with about seventy-five tourists, is booked as the Rochester House Tour of Washington, D. C.

Two special cars, with homeward-bound delegates from the convention of the International Kindergarten Union at San Francisco, are also due Saturday, and will leave for the East Monday.

A party of seventy-five tourists, taking the Cleveland World's Fair Tour, will arrive Sunday. Railroad officials state there is sufficient business in sight to fill three extra sections of the California Limited on each of the last two days of the month.

The Southern Pacific and Salt Lake officials report an increasing amount of passenger traffic east bound and the Southern Pacific has had to requisition additional equipment to care for the record-breaking travel between Los Angeles and the exposition cities.

EX-POLICE CHIEF DEAD.

Alexander Galloway, Head of Department Under Mayor Alexander, Passes Away After Long Illness.

Alexander Galloway, former Chief of Police, died early yesterday morning at his residence, No. 1768 West Twenty-fifth street, after a prolonged sickness from a complication of diseases. He was 65 years old, and leaves a widow and five children. Funeral services were conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Sixth

Mr. Galloway was Chief of Police from February 14, 1910, until January 2, 1911. At the time of his death he was vice-president of the Bunn Creamery.

Mr. Galloway was born in Glasgow, coming to this city with his parents when he was 4 years old.

A police escort will act as pall-bearers. The services will be held under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity.

BUSINESS BREVITIES.

For quick action drop answers to "Times" lines. These lines begin in downtown office buildings. The locations of the boxes are printed in the first column of the Times' "lines" section.

After you have looked the town over come here for tailor-made suits and have them pronounced values at $25. Harris & Frank, Spring, near Fifth.

The Times Branch Office, No. 619 South Spring street. Advertisements and subscriptions taken.

St. Edgar Hotel million-dollar-view dining-room. Redondo Beach, Cal.

For every occasion—

No matter what the Formal Function may be, we can supply you with the Proper Attire that will be correct in every detail. Our assurance of your satisfaction is THE LATEST FIRST.

Wolf & Bean 310-11-12 Merchants Bank Bldg.
THE FULL DRESS MEN

Rental Department in Connection

Myer Siegel & Co.

443-445-447 South Broadway

Exceptionally Good Assortment of Motor and Street

COATS Now Offered

at Moderate Prices

$16.50 $19.50 $25.00 etc.

—of course the newest Fall styles, in Mixtures, Velours, Tweeds, etc. All sizes for women, small women and misses.

New Separate Skirts

"Flannel" sport skirts—the latest!—with large pearl buttons, smart pockets and belt. In French Blue, Hunter's Green and Red. Priced $8.50 to $10. Also smart Awning Striped Skirts, at $7.50.

(Second Floor)

Garments of Style, Quality, Lowest Prices

The Exclusive Specialty House for Feminine Apparel

Speak to the point and everybody knows what you mean.

Brauer's 18th Anniversary Sale closes August 31st.

Get These Big Reductions Now

$25 Suits made-to-measure... $18

$30 made-to-measure... $21

$40 Suits made-to-measure... $24

Smart fabrics, stylishly tailored, guaranteed.

A. K. Brauer & Co.

TAILORS TO MEN WHO KNOW,

Two Spring Street Stores

345-347 and 529-527½

X Popular X Prices X

Without lowering the standard maintenance, we have reduced our prices considerably. Best Reduction 50¢: Hts. $1.25 each; Trousers $1.00 each; Coat $1.50 each; Suit $2.00 each; Tie $1.00 each; Hat $1.00 each.

J. F. DELANT, 446 Broadway

THE WEATHER.

[Official Report.]

LOCAL OFFICE, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Aug. 25.—[Reported by Fred A. Carpenter, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.77; at 8 o'clock, 30.75. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 68 deg. and 72 deg., relative humidity 50 per cent. Wind 5 m.p.h. southward, velocity 2 miles; 8 p.m., south. Highest temperature, 77 deg.; lowest, 58 deg.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.—High pressure of high pressure of the Gulf of Mexico and on both east and west coasts are the areas in the circulation now, moving seaward along the Gulf of California, northward along the coast of the Pacific north of Virginia and on the shores of Lake Erie through western British Columbia to the Arctic Ocean. Weather in Wyoming, Colorado, and Arizona will be fair except for late clouds and early morning fog.

FOR LOS ANGELES AND VICINITY.—High pressure of high pressure of the Gulf of Mexico and on both east and west coasts are the areas in the circulation now, moving seaward along the Gulf of California, northward along the coast of the Pacific north of Virginia and on the shores of Lake Erie through western British Columbia to the Arctic Ocean. Weather in Wyoming, Colorado, and Arizona will be fair except for late clouds and early morning fog.

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—Arthur L. Vissers, 200 N. Spring, reported for fog in the morning.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO AND VICINITY.—High pressure of high pressure of the Gulf of Mexico and on both east and west coasts are the areas in the circulation now, moving seaward along the Gulf of California, northward along the coast of the Pacific north of Virginia and on the shores of Lake Erie through western British Columbia to the Arctic Ocean. Weather in Wyoming, Colorado, and Arizona will be fair except for late clouds and early morning fog.

STATE FORECAST.—

FOR CALIFORNIA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

SACRAMENTO VALLEY.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

LOS ANGELES.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NEW MEXICO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

ARIZONA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

UTAH.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NEVADA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

IDAHO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

WYOMING.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

COLLECTIVE FORECAST.—

FOR THE WESTERN UNITED STATES.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NEW MEXICO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

ARIZONA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

UTAH.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

IDAHO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

WYOMING.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NEVADA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

COLLECTIVE FORECAST.—

FOR THE WESTERN UNITED STATES.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NEW MEXICO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

ARIZONA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

UTAH.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

IDAHO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

WYOMING.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NEVADA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

COLLECTIVE FORECAST.—

FOR THE WESTERN UNITED STATES.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NEW MEXICO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

ARIZONA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

UTAH.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

IDAHO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

WYOMING.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NEVADA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

COLLECTIVE FORECAST.—

FOR THE WESTERN UNITED STATES.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

NEW MEXICO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

ARIZONA.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

UTAH.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

IDAHO.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

WYOMING.—Fair weather continues for conditions of fog in the morning; moderate winds.

</

PUBLISHERS:
THE TIMES-IRROR COMPANY
OFFICERS:

H. G. OTIS, President and General Manager,
BARRY CHANDLER, Asst. Gen. Mgr., and Pres.
PARKER COOPER, Vice-Pres.
F. X. PFAFFINGER, Assistant Treasurer.
MARIAN OTIS-CHANDLER, Vice-Pres., and Secy.

Los Angeles Times

EVENING MORNING IN THE YEAR.

Daily and Sunday, Illustrated Weekly and Semi-Monthly Magazine. Daily Founded July 1, 1850.—Price, 50¢ per copy.

Member, Club A. of the Associated Press. License wire mileage covered: Day, 22,000; Night, 22,000; words transmitted, 28,000, not including specials.

OFFICES:
New Times Building, First and Broadway,
LOS ANGELES (Loco Ahng-hay-lais)

Editor at the Postoffice as mail matter of Class II.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

CHIEF EVENTS OF YESTERDAY.

(At Home:) Financial circles have concluded there will be no disturbance over the Arable affair, and business assumed a most healthy aspect. Industrial securities advancing from 1 to 13 points, with scarcely a halt in the buying. Railroads that have heretofore been conspicuous by their nearly total elimination from dealings were freely speculated in. Foreign exchange, despite the new French loan of $30,000,000, which is considered small here, again fell lower levels. Local clearings increased $100,000 over last year.

(Abroad:) After a period of inoperation the Peruvian government has resumed payment of treasury debts by the issuance of a loan for $150,000,000. London was a good buyer of American securities.

(For details see financial pages.)

RULING ON ALIMONY.
Judge Thomas has ruled that "alimony is not a debt." No; it's something that has to be paid.

FUN COMES FIRST.
William H. Crane, the veteran comedy star, is mighty right when he says that the public does not like to be hanged over the head with the intellectual superiority of some playwright; public goes to the theater to be entertained and it wants its thinking on the side as a chaser.

BAD TIME-KEEPERS.
The only way in the world that you could possibly bring people to the point of keeping their engagements would be to keep them so busy that their own time would be of more value to them. Most people must have a very light regard for life because of the manner in which they squander the hours by which life is measured. If it were only their own time they wasted no one would care; but those who have the least to do are most in the way of those who are trying to carry the burden of the world's business.

CORD FOR CORD."
Financial circles were relieved of some apprehension by the announcement that the dollar had been made the standard for payment by American manufacturers engaged in the exportation of munitions. The currency of a nation suffering reverses is oftentimes so affected that as a medium it is practically worthless. But by establishing the dollar as the basis of payment Americans are sure of getting the contracted value for their goods. During the Civil War both Federal and Confederate money fluctuated, while European currency remained firm. But with German victorious pounds, francs and rubles would have about the same value for American manufacturers as Confederate bills had for the owner of a southern woodsy at the close of the Civil War. A steamboat pulled up alongside the woodsy and the captain asked the price of wood. "Eight dollars per cord," the owner said. "How much in Confederate money?" the captain asked. The answer came in a loud, emphatic voice: "Cord for cord."

SHAW'S BEST JOKE.

After what we trust is a mature consideration of Shaw's "Pygmalion" we have decided that this gifted Englishman who writes like an Irishman knows as well as the rest of us that as a play "Pygmalion" is no masterpiece because it is all sparkle and no feeling, but he simply gloried in the opportunity of having as bright a woman as Mrs. Patrick Campbell help him put over the best practical joke of his life on England. All that this play does is to say to the English: "You bunch of snobs, you think you are smarter than a bushel of monkeys and finer than silk, but I can take the dirt from the street and in six months make her like you and better than you." Now, of course, we all know that this flower girl of the slum life whose father belonged to the joyous class of the undeserving poor could not possibly have had this fitness beaten into her in any six months or six years, but that is exactly Shaw's point. The whole value of "Pygmalion" is that it guarantees to the English nobility that it can produce something like them out of any material on earth with six months' training in superficialities.

THRIFTY ITALY.

Italy is, in the language of the big Bull Moose, "out for the stuff." Italy is in the war for loot, and for nothing else. One exhibition of her tendency in this respect may be seen in the great prison camp at Alessandria, where Hungarians, Croats, Slovaks, Bohemians and Bosnians who are prisoners of war are interned.

The motto of Italy which governs the prison camp is that of Burton, that idleness (of prisoners) is "the bane of body and mind, the curse of Naughtiness, the chief author of all mischief, one of the seven deadly sins, the cushion upon which the devil chiefly repose." Wherefore Italy induces her prisoners to work, the "inducement" being that those who decline to work will be afforded but limited opportunity to eat.

Those who are cooks are employed on the preparation of the rations for the other prisoners. Bricklayers, carpenters and shoemakers have been put to work, for which they receive one lire (19.3 cents) per day. But most of the prisoners are employed in the fields. The great-hearted agriculturists who employ the field laborers charge them but five lire per week for board and lodging and, as they earn six lire, an industrious Croat, by abstaining from tobacco and being careful of his clothes, can lay 75 cents a month.

OVERPRODUCTION? NO!
The wolf of "overproduction" is forever being dragged to the fore to frighten and depress. At the present moment, in the face of the most bountiful harvest ever known in California and in the United States, we are told that there is "too much" of everything—that our products must go to waste for lack of markets. And yet the Department of Agriculture in its Year Book shows that in 1912 we imported into this country fresh, dried, prepared or preserved fruit to the amount of $29,600,000, and in 1913 to the amount of $23,700,000. With the exception of bananas and pineapples all of this fruit might have been raised and preserved at home. Why, so long as we pay out such sums for foreign fruits, should our peaches and apricots rot in the orchards? There is certainly something wrong in our handling of the situation or our markets could not so fall down.

We are told that there will be a large surplus of wheat and other grains this year. And we imported grain and grain products to the value of $9,000,000 in 1912 and over $7,000,000 in 1913; while our imports of the single item of macaroni and spaghetti reach almost $5,000,000 annually. We pay out annually about $3,000,000 for hops—a crop that could easily be made to supply the demand were the production and the market put in right relations. For nuts we expended about $18,000,000 in 1912 and $14,000,000 in 1913. Except for the cocoanut, most of the other nuts could have been raised in California alone.

For vegetable oils the imports reached $26,500,000 in 1912. Over $6,000,000 of this was for olive oil—and we are told that it does not pay to make olive oil in California. Perhaps, under the enlightening influence of the war, we may find out that our own California olive oil is the equal—if not the superior—of the article of a foreign brand.

For seeds listed as castor bean, clover, flaxseed, grass seed, sugar beet and others the amount sent out of the country was $25,600,000 in 1912 and $17,400,000 in 1913. And why should we need to buy any one of these products in other countries? Every one of them can be successfully produced in our own territory.

More surprising still is the fact that in 1912 we paid out $18,500,000 for vegetables, fresh, dried and preserved, and over $7,000,000 of this was for potatoes alone. There is some consolation in observing that the importation of potatoes in 1912 fell to $30,000 and of vegetables to $11,400,000.

In 1913 we brought into the United States over $3,000,000 worth of dairy products and over $4,000,000 worth of eggs—why didn't we supply these from our own country? We might have done it easily enough.

Our total bill to the world for sugar and molasses for 1913 was $105,000,000, while in 1912 it was $115,000,000. Was the difference in production or in consumption?

It says that "half the wage-earners are shown to be getting but $500 a year; that the babies of the poor die three times as fast as those of the rich; that economic pressure prevents two-thirds of all children from getting a grammar-school education; that one-fifth of the time workers in basic industries are out of jobs; that it is simply ridiculous to assume that there can be any approach toward prosperity without radical reforms; that 2 per cent. of the people steal 28 per cent. of the wealth they have earned, and that against facts like these it is vain to bring statistics of bumper crops, of bank clearings, of savings bank deposits, of trade balances or any of the other items commonly produced to make a showing of prosperity."

The Public insists that "steadily increasing poverty is inevitable."

As a newspaper soapboxer The Public has Emma Goldman and Giovannetti worn to a frazzle. Anybody needing a cent's worth of high-class gloom ought to send to Chicago for a copy of it.

SWEEP FROM THE PACIFIC.

A majority of the stock of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company is owned by the Southern Pacific Company. This fact caused the boats of the company to be excluded from the Panama Canal under the operation of the act of Congress repealing the tolls exemption law. It is altogether probable that if the seamen's law had never been enacted the ships of the Pacific Mail would have been transferred to a new corporation organized to receive them, in which new corporation the railroad company would have owned no stock. But such transfer would have made no difference with the operations of our Pacific Ocean mercantile marine, for the boats when transferred to the new company would have continued to run in the Orient trade the same as before.

The seamen's bill created different conditions, and the boats, instead of being transferred to a new corporation, were sold to the Atlantic Transport Company, which will use them in its South American trade and possibly in the traffic with New York via the Panama Canal.

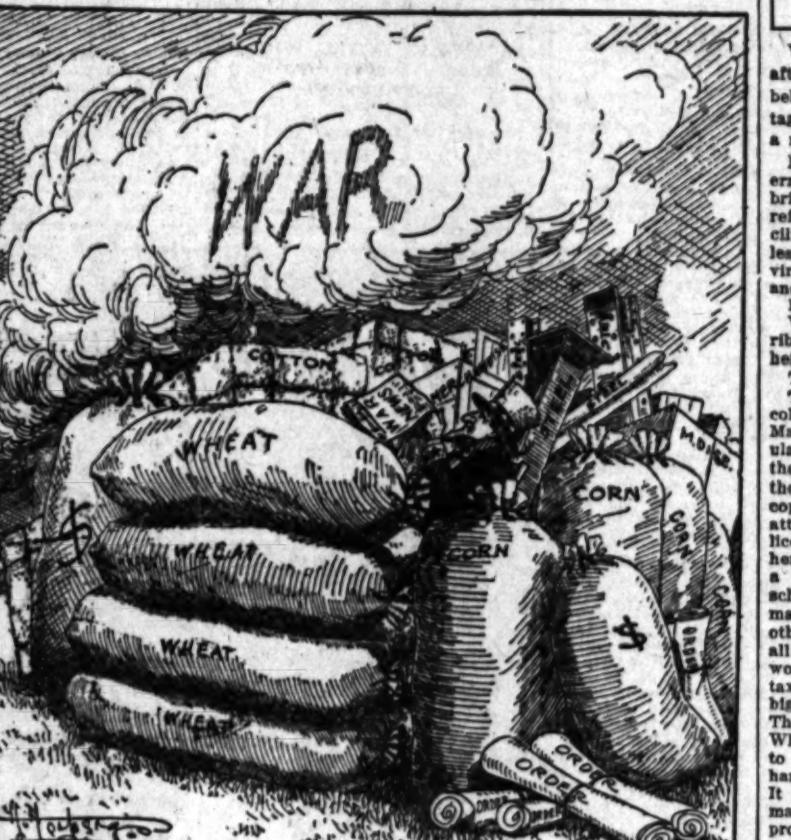

But it will not continue them in the Orient trade, because the seamen's law especially the language restriction clause makes it as impossible for the Atlantic Transport Company as it would have been for the Pacific Mail Company to compete with the steamers of the Japanese line which carry Japanese crews, receiving Japanese wages, and which are therefore run at much less cost than American ships.

The seamen's law, while it will drive American ships from the Pacific Ocean, will be of no advantage to American sailors. It will give to no sailor better wages, better food or better treatment. The language clause will not affect the manning or management of ships on the Atlantic. There is an abundance of Russian, Scandinavian, British, Italian, Spanish, Greek and Portuguese sailors and coal passers and deckhands who undersigned enough English to comprehend the orders of the ship's officers and there are plenty of mates and captains who speak enough Scandinavian or Italian or Spanish to give orders in the languages of those countries. So that the Japanese, who will now conduct the Orient freight and passenger traffic on the Pacific, will have no inducement to send their ships to the Atlantic.

All the special pleas made by newspapers afflicted with the anti-corporation rabies, in favor of retaining the foolish seamen's law, will probably not avail to keep that monstrosity among the Federal statutes. The action of Secretary Redfield indicates that the administration recognizes that it made a mistake in promoting its passage, and the law will doubtless be repealed or so modified as to enable the Atlantic Transport Company or some new Pacific corporation to recover the Pacific Ocean traffic which has been thrown temporarily at least—into the hands of the Japanese companies.

There are 96,000 acres of land in the United States planted in watermelons. This is our idea of a prosperity item.

Well Fortified.

TAG! YOU'RE IT.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

When a man goes to the clerk's office after a dog license the sunny statesman behind the rail also hands him a neat metal tag. Why doesn't he do it when he is after a marriage license?

In the interest of morality and good government we must have more tags. It brings refreshment to the breasts of we reformers to note that the esteemed Councilmen—and Councilwoman—of Los Angeles are alive to the importance of having virtue tags on our homes, hotels, hospitals and hotels.

Every day will be tag day by and by. We want white tags for ingénues, blue ribbons for matrons and red for the hectic heiresses of the divorce mills.

The males will wear tags of the same colors to indicate their domestic condition.

Matching ribbons would then be popular outdoor sport. The tags should record the name, age and physical description of the wearer and, if married, an attested copy of the marriage certificate should be attached. In some States it is proposed to license drinkers. This should be the rule here, and a man should be required to show a tag before buckling himself round a schnit of hops. When a party had his marriage, dog, hunting, drinking and a few other tags gathered about him he would be all dressed up like a Spanish admiral. It would be all right when a man paid his taxes to have the amount punched on a big brass disc to be worn about the neck. The taxpayer gets it in the neck, anyhow. When a man voted he should be required to show his tax tag, and the judge would hand him another to add to his collection. It ought really to be made a felony for a man to offer his marriage license as proof that he has been vaccinated. No married woman should be permitted to swim in our large and hospitable ocean without wearing her tag. This would be for the protection of susceptible life-guards and strangers. Also the movie actresses should wear aluminum badges when they are out on "location" so that casual pedestrans do not get tangled up in the excitement. Out at the ball yard the refined management might follow the idea by giving a massive medal of pure pig iron for every home run.

Under the new dispensation the Alexander would exchange morality tags with each guest and that of the hotel itself would be set on the roof and studded with electric lights so that it could be seen clear to Sag Pedro.

When it comes to the bungalow the tag should record not only the name of the owner, but that of the mortgagor and the amount of the insurance. Make the tags of some benefit to the general real estate men who are such a considerable element of our growing population. The tag should also indicate the number of marriageable females within, and any man who came along with fifty propensities must show his tag before engaging in his favorite pastime.

The tag as a promoter of virtue has a wide and abundant field before it, and caring critics ought to be ashamed of themselves for seeking to restrict its possibilities by using either levity or scorn.

Just at the present they are busy predicting peace. They have been doing it conscientiously for a year now and it always due in about sixty days. Bless their dear hearts, it is not their fault that that delay which makes the heart sick lingers with us. And if they persist in their optimism it will some day prove true.

A bank official in this city has just predicted that we shall have peace in thirty days, and another insists that we shall be at war with Germany in that time. If the latter proves right we shall feel that he is somehow to blame in bringing it about and we shall have nothing but kindly tolerance for the other.

The man who sees naught but disaster, hard times and bad weather can never hope to be popular with any but the military manufacturers, the doctors, the money-lenders and the umbrella makers, and even they are not prepared to concede him the credit. Hope springs anew in the human breast; it is humanity's merciful and unfailing asset; and he who fosters it is a public benefactor, right or wrong. Only with hope can we persevere.

The tag as a promoter of virtue has a wide and abundant field before it, and caring critics ought to be ashamed of themselves for seeking to restrict its possibilities by using either levity or scorn.

Just at the present they are busy predicting peace. They have been doing it conscientiously for a year now and it always due in about sixty days. Bless their dear hearts, it is not their fault that that delay which makes the heart sick lingers with us. And if they persist in their optimism it will some day prove true.

A bank official in this city has just predicted that we shall have peace in thirty days, and another insists that we shall be at war with Germany in that time. If the latter proves right we shall feel that he is somehow to blame in bringing it about and we shall have nothing but kindly tolerance for the other.

The man who sees naught but disaster, hard times and bad weather can never hope to be popular with any but the military manufacturers, the doctors, the money-lenders and the umbrella makers, and even they are not prepared to concede him the credit. Hope springs anew in the human breast; it is humanity's merciful and unfailing asset; and he who fosters it is a public benefactor, right or wrong. Only with hope can we persevere.

The tag as a promoter of virtue has a wide and abundant field before it, and caring critics ought to be ashamed of themselves for seeking to restrict its possibilities by using either levity or scorn.

Just at the present they are busy predicting peace. They have been doing it conscientiously for a year now and it always due in about sixty days. Bless their dear hearts, it is not their fault that that delay which makes the heart sick lingers with us. And if they persist in their optimism it will some day prove true.

A bank official in this city has just predicted that we shall have peace in thirty days, and another insists that we shall be at war with Germany in that time. If the latter proves right we shall feel that he is somehow to blame in bringing it about and we shall have nothing but kindly tolerance for the other.

The man who sees naught but disaster, hard times and bad weather can never hope to be popular with any but the military manufacturers, the doctors, the money-lenders and the umbrella makers, and even they are not prepared to concede him the credit. Hope springs anew in the human breast; it is humanity's merciful and unfailing asset; and he who fosters it is a public benefactor, right or wrong. Only with hope can we persevere.

The tag as a promoter of virtue has a wide and abundant field before it, and caring critics ought to be ashamed of themselves for seeking to restrict its possibilities by using either levity or scorn.

Just at the present they are busy predicting peace. They have been doing it conscientiously for a year now and it always due in about sixty days. Bless their dear hearts, it is not their fault that that delay which makes the heart sick lingers with us. And if they persist in their optimism it will some day prove true.

A bank official in this city has just predicted that we shall have peace in thirty days, and another insists that we shall be at war with Germany in that time. If the latter proves right we shall feel that he is somehow to blame in bringing it about and we shall have nothing but kindly tolerance for the other.

The man who sees naught but disaster, hard times and bad weather can never hope to be popular with any but the military manufacturers, the doctors, the money-lenders and the umbrella makers, and even they are not prepared to concede him the credit. Hope springs anew in the human breast; it is humanity's merciful and unfailing asset; and he who fosters it is a public benefactor, right or wrong. Only with hope can we persevere.

The tag as a promoter of virtue has a wide and abundant field before it, and caring critics ought to be ashamed of themselves for seeking to restrict its possibilities by using either levity or scorn.

Just at the present they are busy predicting peace. They have been doing it conscientiously for a year now and it always due in about sixty days. Bless their dear hearts, it is not their fault that that delay which makes the heart sick lingers with us. And if they persist in their optimism it will some day prove true.

A bank official in this city has just predicted that we shall have peace in thirty days, and another insists that we shall be at war with Germany in that time. If the latter proves right we shall feel that he is somehow to blame in bringing it about and we shall have nothing but kindly tolerance for the other.

The man who sees naught but disaster, hard times and bad weather can never hope to be popular with any but the military manufacturers, the doctors, the money-lenders and the umbrella makers, and even they are not prepared to concede him the credit. Hope springs anew in the human breast; it is humanity's merciful and unfailing asset; and he who fosters it is a public benefactor, right or wrong. Only with hope can we persevere.

The tag as a promoter of virtue has a wide and abundant field before it, and caring critics ought to be ashamed of themselves for seeking to restrict its possibilities by using either levity or scorn.

Just at the present they are busy predicting peace. They have been doing it conscientiously for a year now and it always due in about sixty days. Bless their dear hearts, it is not their fault that that delay which makes the heart sick lingers with us. And if they persist in their optimism it will some day prove true.

A bank official in this city has just predicted that we shall have peace in thirty days, and another insists that we shall be at war

TUESDAY MORNING.

points: By the StaffLETTERS TO "THE TIMES."*man peace rumors are almost as the monthly Cabinet rumors*ab operated by a chauffeur who ought to be both safe and snug*Williams must be in a cyclone who has done nothing of late at a cosmic concern.*ought to be quite a collection of alarms at the conference in Boston this week.*deer has been caught and was say that means a hard winter*various, sunny Southern California fashions are to originate in. Imagine Congressman Re*long time since the sinking of the and we have not progressed much date. Whose fault is it?*Champ Clark, only two remains of the sixty when our party would strike us all in a*Frank's jury in Georgia finds that Frank died from strangulation and we do without the Coroner's*son is fighting for its existence in war and the chances are that it will be wiped out among the European*wives are looking for one man in Los Angeles. He is possibly in the race to make the race for United States*corporation has been denied by an eastern federal court. The affirmative side of the question, it is known, takes the negative.*last of Carranza that he was revention by the United States efforts of the ant to the above the do the pavement.*J. L. BENNETT.*WESTON SCARRED.*BUT UNWRECKED.*from The Dallas Morning News, Aug. 26, 1915.*has refused to accept a $100,000 because he has the rheumatis and he could spend it all buying recommended to him by friends.*Ford says there is prosperity in part of the country. The Ford man of unusual size this year and he warns his judgment.*hospitals they are using new*operation with surgical operations.*be a bad thing to employ*the musical operations.*College graduate has by this time*and how scarce really good jobs are*world. The only way to find one*and try to get one.*Congress meets and discusses*we shall know just what the*worth as mirroring the desire*on that important question.*at the most of the westward travel*erica has to be done in Japan*new view will be given of our*upon the rest of the world.*complaint of the poor?*Perhaps the fat man in his shirt and trousers has no*do with it. The fish can't*think of it.*tion, "Does a woman talk more*than in January?" was the*Missouri society. We should*remember, for then she is hinting what she likes for Christmas.*ment that Senator Cummins*candidate for the Presidential*as not caused any undue*political circles. He has never*held enough to hurt.*from appearances. It won't be*to ask Congress to pass a bill*the San Francisco exposition*City in making history in one*with the big show.*nounced that the United States*in the South in handling their*this could be and was*establishment of the Federal*John Sharp Williams were*country $6 every time an hour*takes a bath in the public*on the old-fashioned tub for*every Saturday night when*it or not.*A VISION OF YOUTH.*is sweet where my bare foot*inked on the clover,*and bee delighted me*and gray I stray today,*and them to the woodland,*again to speak*childhood.*HOME BURNS.*of unknown origin early last*burned the residence of Mrs.*2611 East Seventh Street, owned*the total loss ac-*to the fire department.*was saving its stars.*the fire spread to the*houses before the fire department*could control it. Both houses*and their families were*years, mistakes, that years*mind—keep out of mind*tomorrow.*or storm could now trans-*rain I'd try again*the rainbow's treasure.*[J. A. Waldron in Louisville]*An Oversight.*New York Times:] "Seems to me*it is a mighty careless*said Uncle Hiram,*the fire spread last week, and when*the tellers I*had to go to send any rules*to tell us how to play it."*Laymen's Convention.

(Continued from First Page.)

not made the religion of that man; that he has been born of the religion that is inherent in men's souls. Religion is concrete and personal and goes us on trial for our sins. Don't you think with what you are doing? Have your horizon so high that it is limitless. Make the ideal so high that you never quite reach it."Christ did not come to create a religion, but to develop the religion of the individual. By this method, a crime is committed. The private human nature looks to something as an infringement upon the home. Why put the home class with plus tobacco, and the why add more room to the house to accommodate other to make their homes? It is reform gone stark, language, 'bughouse.'*W. H. MATTHEWS.*You're It.*LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—[To the aim of*police in the detection of crime*and personal environments are*now to be used in the criminal law*and its object is to obtain supervision.]*—*LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—*Councilwoman Mrs.*and Councilmen of the*active dealer and owner of*all city property very ob-*ligate turned their attention*of general away the re-*through unwise city legislation.*taxpayers are at the present*according to a statement made*for the Council at the*50 per cent. too*in our street paving and set-*work, and are suffering*difficulties just as bad. Yet im-*mediately after the*we are going to use it? For useful-*ness or uselessness?*The following bishops are in at-*tendance at the convention:*Rt. Rev. Charles E. Woodcock, D.D., LL.D., of*Kentucky; Rt. Rev. Frederic Keast, Carleton of Boston, George H. Randall of Boston, associate secretary of*the brotherhood during the past*year was compiled and will be sub-*mitted to the convention tomorrow.*The council also decided on the names*of the convention officers which*will be placed in motion at the first*business session this morning. The*following members of the council*were present:*H. D. W. Bonsell of Philadelphia;*T. W. Edwards of Pittsburgh;*Constance Barber of Chicago;*Albert C. Johnson of Milwaukee;*W. H. Bonham of Toledo;*W. H. Bonham of Toledo;

Life's Gentler Side—Society, Music, Song and the Dance—The Theater.

MOVEMENTS IN SOCIETY.

THAT talented Irish woman, Miss Kathleen O'Brien, who is in this country as special correspondent of the Irish Times, was the motif for an enjoyable evening Tuesday, with John Edwin Baxter host at his bachelor apartment in the Turquois.

Back from Pleasant Cruise.

The yacht Yehia, with Mr. and Mrs. George H. Rector, Miss Wilhelmina Rector, Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Minor, Miss Portia Miner and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Osborn aboard, has returned from a cruise of several days about Catalina Island. The Rectors took their guests out Thursday.

Back from New York.

Mr. John Moore Quinn of No. 1805 Argyle avenue is enjoying a visit from his son, Stanley, of New York, who is accompanied by Mrs. Quinn and their baby. They are en route to their summer home, arriving next week, stopping en route to see the exposition. Mr. Quinn is engaged in newspaper work.

Bernard Gordon Married.

Announcements have been received by the Los Angeles press of the details of the marriage in San Francisco of Mr. Bernard Gordon, a well-known Los Angeles merchant of many years' standing, to Mrs. Henrietta West. Mr. Gordon went to San Francisco especially to meet the bride and he surprised his acquaintances by doing this happy thing last Sunday.

At Lark Ellen.

Mrs. Ida Eckert Lawrence, the author of "Wings," was among the guests of Mrs. Ellen Beach Taw at her garden party Thursday evening at Lark Ellen Ranch, Covina, for the benefit of the Lark Ellen Home for Boys. Mrs. Lawrence declared it one of the most artistic affairs she had attended.

Dinner at the Virginia.

A dinner party at the Virginia was given by Mrs. Howard F. Jones in honor of Miss Edith Stone of Utica, O., and Miss Lorraine Johnson of Milwaukee, who are here. The race Klauder, Samantina Klauder, Maude Miller, Brinkley Movies, Kempton Elie, Hugh Kelly and Paul V. Tuttle.

Two Recent Happenings.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Riggs enjoyed their hospitality on Saturday evening at a musical, with a second coterie accepting a picnic courtesy on Sunday, both being held at their home, No. 1455 Norton.

The other recent social event of the night's diversion was Dr. Frank Holman, Miss Mabel Alderman, Miss Anna Kalthoff-Moss, Melville Tipton, Julia Belle Taylor, Jessie B. Small, the Duncasters, the Conners and, of course, well, the music in "Moments Mystical," the artists giving of their best for the entertainment of the guests.

On the following day, fully thirty-five participated in the midday picnic luncheon, which was served out in the shade of a large tree, with its immense rice leaves, and with a canopy of interlacing greenery giving shade. They lingered until nightfall in so- ciability.

Concerning Exposition Visitors.

Mrs. Robert Schreider, who resides at No. 412 Coronado street, left Saturday night for a ten days' trip to the San Francisco Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Van Allen who have been three weeks in the north are expected home Sunday.

Back from the South.

Accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Ratcliffe, Mrs. M. M. Symmes of No. 941 Gramercy place has returned from San Diego's fair.

List of Fair Visitors Augmented.

Mrs. Alice Jackins and daughter Miss Dorothy, and Mrs. George O'Connor, daughter, Miss Kathleen, of the Bryson apartments left Tuesday for an outing of several days in San Francisco.

Called by School.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Park of the former leaving Saturday for the East, where they plan to place their two children, Carmen and Margaret, in school.

Dinner Party.

Honoring Miss Eleanor Post of New York City, Mrs. and Misses Beale's annual dinner guests at the Beverly Hills Hotel Monday night. At table were the honoree, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Roland Sevier, Miss Gertrude Dorrmus, Miss Marian Hennan, of New York, Misses Anna Giarrett, Freda, Maudie and Dorrmus, the latter also of the eastern metropolis. Mrs. Sevier, whose house guest Miss Post is, complimented the easterners with a dinner at the Maryland in Pasadena Saturday night.

Here from Omaha.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles E. Knott of Omaha have come to visit in the maternal Mrs. A. M. Knott home, No. 3327 Moneta avenue, where they will be for a fortnight.

With the Exposition Exodus.

Mrs. Ethel Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Graham, who recently left Iowa via San Francisco, Mrs. Ethel Graham expects to stay in the bay city for several months, though the other members of the party will return shortly after viewing the exposition.

From Iowa.

Mrs. Charles Crossley has come from Iowa to tour California and see

Mrs. Claude Franklin Morey,

Who was recently wed in San Diego and is now honeymooning in Omaha and the East. Mrs. Morey was previous to her marriage Miss Esther Mae Mellor of Orange.

To Arrive on Special Tonight.

The Los Angeles branch of the collegiate alumnae will be at home to the visiting delegates this afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5, at the room of the Delta Sigma Theta, at which time Miss Vida Hunt, Frances Stewart, the organist, was also a guest, and Florencio Constantino, the tenor, was to have been a guest, but did not make his appearance.

Other members are urged to attend.

The alumnae, however, the delegates from the San Francisco national convention arrived in the city last night en route to San Diego, and tomorrow is the only day Los Angeles will have an extended series of the alumnae guests, which is to be done in the short hour.

Coburn-Brown Marriage.

A quiet home wedding took place Tuesday at noon at Dr. E. L. Coburn's residence, No. 1461 Douglas street, when Martha A. Coburn of Culver City, a daughter of the doctor, became the bride of William C. Brown of Moneta. The bride and groom are spending a few days at Catalina, then they will go to their home at Moneta.

Prenuptial Shower.

A jolly cotillion of Miss Nan Hunter's friends extended a courtesy to this bride and groom by holding a small form of a prenuptial shower at the home of Miss Bernice Robb, No. 1825 Bellvue avenue. Present were Misses Edith Greene, Madeline Measure, Winifred Gates, Carolyn Huff, Harriette Bush, Taft E. Taylor, Matilda Morris, Lucille Ravencroft, Hatlie L. Ulrich, Jean Lambert, Mae L. Brown and Mrs. Bebe Hill. Miss Hunter is wed Ernest Wilson in the near future.

San Diego.

FRIENDS SEEKING HULL'S RELEASE

INTERVIEW GOV. CANTU FOR QUICK ACTION.

Pasadena Youth Must Remain in Jail Three Days Before Law Permits of Ball—Noted Singers Guests at Exposition—Kodak Manufacturer Makes Himself Invisible.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH SAN DIEGO, Aug. 25.—Although friends have hopes of securing the release of young Roy B. Hull of Pasadena, held in the Tia Juana carnel, he cannot be released on bail or in any manner until he has been confined for seventy-two hours after arrest, according to the Mexican law.

A telegram received tonight by Hull's friend, Irving W. Benton, from Attorney Rusk Mosholder, who with Attorney Leslie Mager of Pasadena, went to Mexicali to confer with Gov. Cantu, stated that "everything would be all right."

The "Lodi" car which Hull drove when he belongs to Benton, is still being held by the Mexican authorities, who state they can do nothing regarding Hull or the car until the matter is placed before the Governor, who will decide as to the nature of the offense.

Today several witnesses to the accident gave their testimony to the officers at Tia Juana, to be forwarded to the Governor. The testimony of the witnesses was that the soldier who was killed, and another who was companioning him were both drunk and were staggering, when one stumbled and fell under the car, which Hull was backing.

In case it is proven that the master planned to kill the Governor, holds that the dead is not a crime, young Hull will be released without trial. Irving Benton, who has been using every means in his power to aid young Hull, has again gone to Mexicali, with Milton Barber, a banker of this city, and Roberto Farfan, to again confer with the Mexican officers.

The soldier killed is said to have

FIVE STARS TO SPARKLE HERE.

Popular Drama to be Revived at Majestic.

Mrs. Campbell in Shaw Play Comes to Mason.

"The Big Idea" for Burbank; Good Orpheum Bill.

"The New Henleita," adapted by Winchell Smith from Bronson Howard's old play, presented by an all-star cast, is to be the attraction at the Majestic Theater next week, opening on Monday night.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Winchell Smith is said to have done some brilliant work in his rewriting of the play, which, while it has never been seen in this city, has been presented for three seasons by the above-named aggregation.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large audiences evidence her popularity.

William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Mabel Taliaferro and Maclyn Arbuckle will assume the principal roles of the play, supported by Rosamond Coghlan, Arthur S. Hull and others.

Woolley.

The attraction at the Woodley Theater this week is a picture version of "The Clansman" and of "The Garden of Lies" at the Superba Theater this week, has proved that she need no introduction to the Los Angeles public, for the large Theaters.

MATTER OF WILLS
CAUSES ARGUMENT

SANTA BARBARA TRIAD END WITH SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE!

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 26.—William Beale occupied the stand for just four minutes this morning, called to identify her own attorney for the contestants, who break the will of the late John Beale, blocked the move for a week, after a lengthy argument between council, court took a recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow, when the trial will resume the stand.

The calling of Mrs. Beale came especially, but signals the near end of the contest, Attorney Moulton, chief counsel for the prosecution, informing the court that they complete the defense by this afternoon.

Previous testimony regarding conversation in which Mr. Beale indicated that he wished his children remembered, spoke way for the introduction of a document by Mrs. Beale, his widow, and, as Attorney Moulton expressed it in his effort to save introduction of the will as an exhibit.

Mrs. Beale has kept a long silence since the trial began, and was stopped from further talking by the objections from opposing counsel. The widow's attorney sought to secue her statement made with Mr. Beale on January 2, 1914, a month before the will was executed, but this call for further objections and a recess tomorrow was ordered.

The widow of the day was a member of Miss Elizabeth, a pretty serving maid, who had been in the Beale household for two years. She testified on an all-day trial, which Mr. Beale had written and signed up. He threw the manuscript to the window, Beale ran back at the Beale mansion and got it, and when he stepped into the room the maid gathered up the manuscript and patched them together. They were through, and then three hours later, when directed to write the alleged will as nearly as she could collect, the document read:

"I John E. Beale, am of sound mind and good health, and I do hereby make my will. I bequeath all my estate, Lillian Beale, only what the California law provides." The widow testified that the will also made provision for Mr. Beale's brother and six others, members of his family.

OUTFITTERS TO SPORTSMEN

Deer Season Sept. 1st
—DIRECTIONS FOR SKINNING

Skinning Hide
—Cut skin at back of neck like white horse on cut; skin around horns; take skin off of skull entirely; rub plenty of fat on skin to prevent it from getting stiff. It will cost extra to have it skinned.

DEER HEAD COUPONS FREE
We are giving away free coupons which will entitle you to have your head mounted at a price which no taxidermist has ever offered before. Write, phone or call for one.

OUTFITTERS TO SPORTSMEN

B.W. Dyal Co.
7th St. NEAR BDWAY.

MOTOR CAR DEALERS ASSOCIATION DIRECTORY

BEARDSLEY ELECTRIC — Beardsley Electric Co., 1250-1260 W. 7th. Home phone 53018; Pac. tel. 788.

BUCK — HOWARD AUTO CO. 1323 S. Flower St. Home 60009. Main 9040.

CHALMERS — HUPMOBILE — Green Robbins Co., Twelfth and Flower Sts. Bdwy 5410; A1187.

CHANDLER — Chandler Motor Co. of Cal. 1144 So. Hope St. Main 3459, F5047.

FRANKLIN and SCRIPPS-BOOTH — Rauch & Lang and BAKER ELECTRICALS. R. C. HAMLIN, 1040 South Flower St. Phones: 60249, Main 7877.

Entertainments

THEATER

MATINEES

CINEMA

WEEKLY

TICKETS

STOCK SENSATION

PERFORMANCE

BROADWAY

HOME PICTURES

SIX NIGHTS

REOPENING

NEXT MONDAY

STAR ATTRACTION

AT THEATRE

AMERICA'S

GREATEST COMPANY

IN HENRIETTA

Wednesday and Saturday, 8 p.m. to 10 p.m.

WON ON SALE

REGULAR

NEAR STAGE

LETTY'

A Luxurious Light Car

THE

SCRIPPS-BOOTH

ROADSTER

$850 HERE

Mechanical excellence and great beauty of design make this new roadster the most attractive car in its class. Immediate delivery.

R. C. HAMLIN

1040 So. Flower St.

POMPEIAN OLIVE OIL

We are making a special offer on a $6.00 set of teeth that we know cannot be equalled elsewhere under $15.00. We know it so well that we are offering to give it away. Send us a sample of ANY dentist's $12 set of teeth and we will duplicate it for $6.00 or less. Call or write to R. C. HAMLIN, 1040 So. Flower St., Los Angeles, Calif. Features, including

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 26, 1915.—4 PAGES.

PART III

LOS ANGELES MOTOR RESERVE IS ORGANIZED.

Local Baseball.

TENTH INNING
FATAL TO DOC.Seals Rush Two Runs Across Plate and Win.Tigers Try Frantically in Their Half.Piercy's Feet Get Examined by Stingaree.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

The Seals skinned the overheat Tigers yesterday and hung them up by the heels to cool off.

Although beaten, 5 to 4, the Tigers went down fighting, and it required an extra inning for San Francisco to subdue them. Doc's athletes did not think of giving up until three men had been retired in the tenth. Even then they might have kept on fighting except for the fact that any runs they might have scored after Doc's were out would not have counted. Never did a ball go out of the park after the tenth inning, which totals 100 innnings.

They felt if given only two or three more innnings they could beat the Seals to death.

Wolpert's athletes won the bat-

the tenth in a sudden and unexpected use of their well-known bats.

Downs, Corhan and Block batted two runs across in the final round, bursting a tough tie that had been on the job since the fifth. Bill Potts was the sufferer of the outburst, which was totally uncalled for. That's what Bill gets for going to relieve some other guy. He went to the assistance of Rhino in the fifth, and continued to poll the enemy until the fatal tenth.

EXCITEMENT.

John Kane, catcher, C. Honkus Baum some amount of mind and soul by slapping out a double in the last half of the tenth. This started something that the crafty C. Honkus couldn't stop until after Kane had scored. He was visibly relieved when the final out was made.

Pride of the team was a powerful fly from the bat of Joe Wilhoit for the third out, leaving the tying run stranded on third.

For those who like to get excited it was a fine combat which, and we were the victim of a surprise attack. No one where a guy could get more wrought up for two bits.

Although it is generally known that Baum came west with the gold rush he shows no signs of fermenting with it.

This is because he has been temperate in everything, and has never stayed up late at night unless he could sleep late the next day. For several years after breaking in, he was even temperate in the amount of salary which he received.

For some reason Rhino Hitt was not retributed—at his best. Some figure that he started too strong by fanning a couple in the first innning. He may have been the which caused him to fade along in the middle distance. No guy can overtax his strength without suffering for it later. Rhino resigned in the fifth with the score tied, which seemed to be a favorable time for getting out. He then got out behind the shed and practiced on his new deliveries—the glue ball, the fume ball and the high explosive ball. He seems determined to advance in his chosen profession.

The unemployed crowd yesterday. Stinner, Bill, went behind the bat, while Finney got out and ran the bases. They claim that these changes

(Continued on Fourth Page.)

BAT NELSON TO CHALLENGE WELSH.

FORMER CHAMPION SAYS HE IS IN BEST CONDITION OF CAREER.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

EL PASO (Tex.) Aug. 25.—Battling Nelson announced tonight through Manager John Meek of the Juarez Athletic Club, that he intended to challenge Freddie Welsh for the world's lightweight championship which he lost to Ad Wolgast.

The battling one is here to get in condition for his fight with Bobby Waugh. Nelson slugged on Labor Day and has arranged with Manager Meek to stage the Nelson-Welsh bout for forty-five rounds in the Juarez arena, either on Christmas or New Year's.

"I am sure he is as good or better than he ever was, barring an enlarged ear and a decreased ego, and he says he can whip Freddie Welsh over the long route now or New Year's."

For some reason he is as good or better than he ever was, barring an enlarged ear and a decreased ego, and he says he can whip Freddie Welsh over the long route now or New Year's.

GOLF CHAMPION RETAINS TITLE.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Robert A. Gardner of Chicago, former national amateur golf champion, today retained his title as champion of the Chicago Tribune Golf Association, defeating Samuel F. Reynolds of Omaha in the final round at the Glen Oak Country Club, 4 and 3. The match went 28 holes. Gardner's medal score was 155; Reynolds's, 162.

Another One.

ST. MARY'S QUITS RUGBY FOR THE AMERICAN GAME.

End of English Game Brought Still Nearer by Action of Oakland School—Stanford and Santa Clara Left Alone to Play Club Teams and High Schools. Saints Would Like to Play 'Possums.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Aug. 25.—The end of Rugby in the North is in sight. Today an official announcement was made by Manager Nevis of St. Mary's College in Oakland to the effect that American football would be played this year.

RUGBY DOOMED.

The return of the Oakland college to the old game presses more than is seen on the surface. Nevada has already come into the fold and now two first-class Rugby teams remain in the field, Stanford and Santa Clara. Club teams here are not matches for the college men.

With St. Mary's College out of the English game, Stanford will find her field more limited than ever, while Santa Clara will be in even worse plight.

WANTS GAME.

Nevis wired Manager Board of U.S.C. tonight asking for open dates. Nevis would like to take his team south following their final game with the California varsity on October 30. He hopes to be able to schedule games in November with U.S.C.

Negotiations with Pomona and Occidental will be started as soon as reply is received from U.S.C. Games with both of these colleges are desired.

GOOD MATERIAL.

St. Mary's College has an enrollment of over 500 men. A squad of sixty men will turn out at the first call for practice on Monday. David McAndrews, Dartmouth halfback in 1912, is to coach.

St. Mary's will be able to turn out a team averaging 175 pounds. And since over two-thirds of the men planning to go out have played American football recently, it is plain that she will be a good match.

SOME HUSKIES.

Louie Giusto, the 220-pound Rugby star, and his baby brother, weighing 180 pounds, will be of the stock of which the team is to be built.

Organize America's first military motoring body. At top, experts of transportation in executive session. Standing, from left to right, H. C. Kampmeyer, C. King, S. W. Merritt, C. H. Smith, A. T. Smith, T. J. Beaudette, E. D. Noy, G. L. Wotkins, E. Crosman, Don Smith. Seated, Teddy Tetzlaff, Harris M. Hanshue, E. W. Martin, George Kyllus, Paul G. Hoffman, chairman, and Roy H. Compton, secretary. Below, E. C. Crossman, expert marksman, explaining government magazine rifle to Paul G. Hoffman, Don Smith and Harris M. Hanshue.

M'GILL DENIES HE IS TO BUY INDIANS.

SAYS SOMERS NEVER BROACHED SUBJECT OF SALE TO HIM.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

DENVER, Aug. 25.—Manfred James C. McGill, manager of the Denver and the Indianapolis baseball teams, today flatly denied the report printed in New York papers that Charley Somers, owner of the Cleveland franchise in the American League, was about to dispose of the franchise to McGill and William Smith of Indianapolis.

"There was no letter from Mr. Somers yesterday, but there was no reference made to buying his ball club," said McGill. "He has no desire to sell. I've got all the ball clubs I can handle right now, without taking on any more. The Indianapolis and Denver clubs occupy all my time, so what would I do with a club in the majors?"

Trotting, 2:11 class, $1500; Madden, Alice, second, $1200; Princess, third, best time, 2:10 1-4.

Pacing, 2:16 class, $600; Lou Dale, first; The Exchange, second; Walter, Rochester, third; best time, 2:08 1-4.

Three-year-old pacing, $600; Wanda, first; Aliz Morris, second; Ebenezer, third.

Patriots of auto industry

Members of the corps are to engage in the first rifle practice next Sunday.

(Continued on Fourth Page.)

WARD DAWSON IS ELIMINATED.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

SOUTHAMPTON (N. Y.) Aug. 25.—William M. Johnson is the only survivor in the eastern tennis classic. He defeated Robert Leroy, 6-1, 6-2, and is entitled to enter the final meeting of the tournament.

G. L. Walker, his doubles partner, was taken ill during the national interclub match, also spoke on the importance of rifle practice in the development of the reserve military forces.

ENTHUSIASM.

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, through Mai Andrew C. Copp, Jr. chairman of the Military Affairs Committee, has assured enthusiastic cooperation in the organization of the part of the Los Angeles motor car men, and the organization promises to become one of the greatest military reserve commands in the United States within a short time.

At a meeting last night, E. C. Crossman explained the regulations of the National Rifle Association governing civilian rifle clubs, and it was decided to make rifle practice one of the features of the work of the committee.

G. L. Walker, his doubles partner, spoke on the importance of rifle practice in the development of the reserve military forces.

SHOOT.

The other matches of the day were of minor importance.

Several doubles affairs were run off and they all came out strictly according to dope.

da. first; Aliz Morris, second; Ebenezer, third.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Hasn't Your Experience Always Been the Same as Mr. Wad's?

By Gale.

which I steer with nearly an epicureprecious, prime hour—Cuban workmanhood with artist's tip is as smooth satiny cheek of asaves me from paying 25c for no better than

it! Van Dyck

as much for your sake, you make themDyck Spanish made and up

Inc., Distributors

GOTHAM GIANTS
SCATTER AFAR.Left Club Which Won Three Flags.Base of Marquard Reduces the Ranks.Betty Doyle and Merle Still Stick on Job.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

John J. McGraw is ripping the New York Giants out of all resemblance to well-known savages.

While awaiting the surgical operation on the erstwhile Athletics Chief Surgeon Mack, a lot of us sat pale in our Inchyroming seats, a tear or two on the new graves of the Giants.

It probably was because the game in the Giants has been more usual, having been in progress for two years or so. Recently, however, there has been more activity in ripening the Giants up one side and down the other. In the past ten days, he has been especially violent, releasing the most virulent of his invective on the Rube Marquard to the Toronto Blue Jays. These two things, coming so together, should enable the sensible fan to look a little at their gripes with a smile. Their gripe will be easily explained by the fact that they have caught on with the best brains, and, therefore, is sure of

The Giants are going the way of all good things, and will win three pennants this year. They need to make a hit, but got stalled on the last riffle. New York line-up contains strange names. Those of Doyle, Mathewson, Fletcher, and Myers alone hearken back to championship days of 1911.

Wiltse, Crandall, Drucks, Bridwell, Raymond, Wilson, Shaefer sound like an echo in recent times, so swiftly do we move in baseball. Some of the names mentioned are forgotten, some the Federal and others re-

Mrs. Walter Logan

And her English bulldog "Culver," the first entered in the Venice kennel show, which will open tomorrow, August 26, for three days.

after being released, caught on with the Brookfield.

Catch on.

Devlin, a great third-base in his prime, shipped to Boston when he began to slip, and from there to Rochester. Later he had a fine stick, and last spring caught on with the Dodgers, a team which had no room for him. Being too wild for the Ebbets Field crowd, he came West to grow up with the country. But he was too wild for California, which is now in an advanced stage of civilization, and finally, after successive engagements with Sacramento, San Fran, and Oakland, went back to his native land in Texas.

Marquard began to fade last season and has shown but little this year. Last winter he got all tangled up by jumping to the Brooklyn Feds while nailed to the Giants with an ironclad contract. The Feds let go of him quick when the circumstances became known to them.

McGraw caught on with Boston after being caned by New York, and figured in a world's championship to the extent of batting in a pinch. As Josh got his full cut of the receipts, he showed where he got his money. McGraw promptly began to all to all four corners of the country.

Among the casualties may be Marquard, Raymond, Merle, and the like.

Josh Devore caught on with Boston after being caned by New York, and figured in a world's championship to the extent of batting in a pinch. As Josh got his full cut of the receipts, he showed where he got his money. McGraw promptly began to all to all four corners of the country.

Marquard began to fade last season and has shown but little this year. Last winter he got all tangled up by jumping to the Brooklyn Feds while nailed to the Giants with an ironclad contract. The Feds let go of him quick when the circumstances became known to them.

McGraw caught on with Boston after being caned by New York, and figured in a world's championship to the extent of batting in a pinch. As Josh got his full cut of the receipts, he showed where he got his money. McGraw promptly began to all to all four corners of the country.

McGraw placed Wiltse as manager of the International League, but grand guy that he was, he didn't deliver as a manager, and cannot be listed as a case.

Herschel was sentenced to manage the Cincinnati Reds, and at the present moment seems to be making quite a success of it.

Herschel was swapped to Philadelphia, as was Demaree, and gets into the line-up every once in a while. Red Murray is doing pinch-hitting stunts for the Cubs. McCormick, another red hot guy, the proud manager of the Chattanooga club.

Arthur Prentiss, after ten years in the majors, received his honorable discharge, and is now winning games for Maier's Tigers.

Jim Thorpe, the fierce red man, proved to be a great ball player, a thrower, and batsman, and McGraw, after exhibiting him around the circuit a couple of times, sent him to Harrisburg in the International League. In this way Thorpe feels that he is getting back to nature.

McGraw bought him from Indianapolis with Bill Durban in 1908, paying $10,000 for him. The high water mark since the Clarkson-Kirby sale of 1909, and caused much comment in financial circles. Durban had killed his arm that year, establishing a world's record for pitchers, and won the doubleheaders in the American Association, and did not last with New York. Marquard looked like a bloomer, but McGraw was in so deep on the deal that he handled the Rube as tenderly as a piece of brio-a-brac, a muley in

Known as the "lemon" of 1909, only to bloom as the sensation of 1912, and then fade. Rube Marquard was one of the most interesting figures in modern baseball.

Eccentric, as are most guys who pitch with their left hand, Marquard was always more or less of a jester—not to mention his opposing batmen to the public. He showed flashes of greatness, but his work was not enduring.

McGraw bought him from Indianapolis with Bill Durban in 1908, paying $10,000 for him. The high water mark since the Clarkson-Kirby sale of 1909, and caused much comment in financial circles. Durban had killed his arm that year, establishing a world's record for pitchers, and won the doubleheaders in the American Association, and did not last with New York. Marquard looked like a bloomer, but McGraw was in so deep on the deal that he handled the Rube as tenderly as a piece of brio-a-brac, a muley in

ISSUED.

This report was issued yesterday by the touring bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California, and because of frequent changes in road conditions, the club advises that motorists stop at the headquarters, No. 1244 South Figueroa street, or at any branch office before leaving Southern California, for the latest advice.

National Old Trail road: Conditions on this route have become quite bad in Kansas. Although an average of six motor cars per day are arriving in Los Angeles over the National Old Trail, these have for the most part avoided the mud as the rains drenched Kansas after they passed through.

SIGN-POSTED.

Going to the fact that this route has been sign-posted by the Auto Club, it is a prime favorite with motorists, and the various sections through which it passes are planning improvements in the near future. As a report on short trips for the week-end.

On Friday the Auto Club will issue

a report on short trips for the week-end.

The three big football games which usually settle the championship between Yale, Harvard and Princeton, will this season be staged as follows:

Nov. 6, Princeton vs. Yale at Princeton; Nov. 13, Yale vs.

Harvard vs. Yale at Cambridge;

The Army vs. Navy game will be played at the Polo Grounds, New York, on November 27.

in the race, has also been shy this season of left-handers."

The local team has not sold or released a single player since the season started. All of the real players have been reserved for next season, with the exception of Canney, pitcher, who has been purchased by the Birmingham (Ala.) Southern League team.

The pennant winners will be tendered a banquet in this city on Saturday night next by Mayor Bone.

FIGHTERS TO STAGE

THEIR OWN SCRAPS.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

EVANSVILLE, Aug. 24.—The Central

Baseball League closed the season with Evansville winning the pennant and Grand Rapids second in the race. This is the first time Evansville has won the Central League pennant

since 1908. Mayor Benjamin Bone has arranged to erect a large metal flag pole at the league ball park.

Evansville is said to be one of the few cities in the United States that make minor league ball pay this season.

"We have done a little better than break even," said President Harry Stahlheber. "The receipts of today are held over from yesterday, and they were $1,000.

Steve Cielina, head of the concern,

says he thinks that a series ofights

will help the game, and that they

had everything at stake would

help the game. The fighters, under

the scheme, would divide all the receipts but the actual rental. Ad Wolgant and Bobby Waugh have been matched to fight at Shreveport September 6.

Steve Cielina, head of the concern,

says he thinks that a series ofights

will help the game, and that they

had everything at stake would

help the game. The fighters, under

the scheme, would divide all the receipts but the actual rental. Ad Wol-

gant and Bobby Waugh have been

matched to fight at Shreveport September 6.

Steve Cielina, head of the concern,

says he thinks that a series ofights

will help the game, and that they

had everything at stake would

help the game. The fighters, under

the scheme, would divide all the receipts but the actual rental. Ad Wol-

gant and Bobby Waugh have been

matched to fight at Shreveport September 6.

Steve Cielina, head of the concern,

says he thinks that a series ofights

will help the game, and that they

had everything at stake would

help the game. The fighters, under

the scheme, would divide all the receipts but the actual rental. Ad Wol-

gant and Bobby Waugh have been

matched to fight at Shreveport September 6.

Steve Cielina, head of the concern,

says he thinks that a series ofights

will help the game, and that they

had everything at stake would

help the game. The fighters, under

the scheme, would divide all the receipts but the actual rental. Ad Wol-

gant and Bobby Waugh have been

matched to fight at Shreveport September 6.

Steve Cielina, head of the concern,

says he thinks that a series ofights

will help the game, and that they

had everything at stake would

help the game. The fighters, under

the scheme, would divide all the receipts but the actual rental. Ad Wol-

gant and Bobby Waugh have been

matched to fight at Shreveport September 6.

Steve Cielina, head of the concern,

says he thinks that a series ofights

will help the game, and that they

had everything at stake would

help the game. The fighters, under

the scheme, would divide all the receipts but the actual rental.

AT THE STAGE DOOR
By GRACE KINGSLY

W. H. Crane and the crowd of stars that renders him first aid in "The New Henrietta," which will be presented at the Majestic next week, are mentioned in the story under the direction of William Smith, who took Bronson Howard's "The Henrietta" apart and put it together again.

Mr. Smith says the play has been renovated throughout. It is now equipped with telephone, electric lights, wire writing, for the headlines and all the modern conveniences.

There is the rumor of a divorce, and the role of the person, played by Maclyn Arbuckle, has been brought down to date in that the clergyman is informed to insist in a cocktail.

The "old-time" character (now an extinct species except in musical comedy), "Lord Arthur," has been completely suppressed; and the boy who, in the original play, ruins his father for no reason except to make his big act, has now worked over into a son-in-law, who, according to all the rules of human nature would naturally hate his father-in-law.

Joy Slinger.

"Getting back into the dark of the theater after working outdoors in the pictures makes me feel like a rat."

DEDICATES SON TO HIS COUNTRY.

Daughter of Revolution is full of Patriotism.

Daughters Must Suffer When Day Calls, She Says.

Woman from Maine Charmed with Pasadena.

Local Correspondence.

PARADENA, Aug. 26.—I am ready to be a patriotic citizen if our country is ever engaged in war. I will teach him practical patriotism, the fact that the United States if necessary, asserted Mrs. A. Clark, honorary vice-regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, who is at the Maryland home. There were some mothers must for their sons. It is their part to serve, it is their duty. When country is in danger there are other things than personal comfort to consider. Andrew Carnegie and others have started a peace league which secures pledges from the Sons of the American Revolution met in Portland. Mrs. Clark was to represent Mrs. William Cumming, President-General. She is the widow of the author of the American Peace League.

CALL IT TREASON.

The earnest plea in the interest of peace amount to treason," she said. "The Daughters and the Sons of the American Revolution are trying to save the country from the same disaster in time of peace as in time of war."

Mrs. Clark was the first Regent-General, one of the eighteen who organized the Daughters of the American Revolution in 1890.

She said it would ever be as large an organization.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and national offices. Maine will elect a Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large over-production on their hands. The home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and national offices. Maine will elect a Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

President's orders are good at

any time soon the country

would be in a worse condition than it has been in years.

This he attributed to the large war

orders. If they went to cease the eastern market would find a large

over-production on their hands. The

home market would be destroyed.

Mr. Carter predicts a strong committee against the Democrats in the 1916 election. He believes that

Republicans with broad and progressive ideas will be elected to State and

national offices. Maine will elect a

Republican Governor, a Republican Senator, and all four Congressmen.

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

At the Courthouse.
MYSERIOUS LAD PUZZLES JUDGE.

BETRAYED TO WOMAN BY QUEER CATCH IN HIS VOICE.

Identified as Intruder Who Tried to Liberate Girl from Juvenile Hall. Owns Motor Car and Lives Apparently on Nothing, but is Suspected Member of Automobile Thief Gang.

A pleasant-faced, neatly dressed young man sat in the Juvenile Court yesterday and listened in apparent amazement as Alameda Both, assistant superintendent of Juvenile Hall, identified him as the intruder who entered her sleeping room early one morning with the intent of effecting the escape of Jessie Ridley, an inmate. The identification, however, was not positive until the young man made a denial. A catch in his voice betrayed him.

Who is this nice appearing youth? The juvenile authorities say they do not know. He is known to them under the name of Charles Forbes, and to city and Long Beach officers as King and Robb. While he has been under observation for months, neither his true name nor his antecedents have been pumped from him. Now, he lives or where, who he associates with and where he comes from are at the pages of an uncut book to the authorities.

Forbes is credited with living at Long Beach for days on an asset of $1 cent. He owns an automobile, and when officers asked him where he got it, he told them to find out. Adopting the methods of a Dick Turpin, he is alleged to have taken what he wanted.

June 17 he ran out of gasoline, and we took him from the D. & M. Dry House at Long Beach. This brought about his undoing. Officer Dewey of Long Beach has a warrant charging him with burglary at San Diego. He is waiting to see what disposition Judge Delphy will make of the case.

According to the court, he committed this afternoon in Juvenile Court.

Meantime, the authorities are troubled by another phase of the case. Sometime ago when Forbes was under arrest he submitted to trial in the criminal court at Long Beach. That time he fell into the hands of the police he pleaded he was only 17.

He says he is the victim of a frame-up, and that he did not enter Juvenile Hall to liberate Jessie Ridley.

The young woman was unknown to the authorities, so I break in to set her free?" he said.

So back the court sent him to the County Jail, more puzled than ever. Is he the scion of wealthy parents, a black sheep of the family, or is he just a wretched scoundrel?

When he was arrested he had a revolver in his pocket which might well frighten a grown man, if the accent were backed up by a revolver.

LEGAL PROBLEM.

TOUCHES CEMENT PLANT.

A legal problem which the County Counsel's office may have solved itself, developed yesterday when the Riverside-Pearlside Cement Company, through O'Melveny, Stevens & Milkin, filed an injunction suit to restrain the city of Los Angeles from entering into a contract with the county for the furnishing of barrels of cement to the Monolith Company of Kern county at $1.75 a barrel, on the ground that the county violated a provision of the city charter.

Presiding Judge Works signed an order enjoining the city from entering into the contract, and set the hearing for September 10, next Monday morning. It then developed that the contract had been executed by both the city and the county Tuesday, and according to County Counsel Hill and Assistant Deputy County Counsel Murphy, the city had breached the contract, nothing now to set over.

The alleged violation consists of neglect on the part of the county to accompany its bid by a certified check or bond as required by the city charter. This provision is required by the charter, and all bids for the County Counsel's office declared the check or bid is required only as a guarantee that the successful bidder will enter into the contract and not for the faithful performance of the contract itself. The cement company contends that the city has breached the contract, and that the bid is void because the provision was violated.

The Monolith plant is owned by the city of Los Angeles and was leased to the county for one year with the provision that it will be sold to the county. The city wanted 7500 barrels of cement and the county agreed to furnish it out of the surplus stock. Bids were advertised for on the 16th inst., and awarded to the county a week later. The contract price was $1.75. The suit is in the nature of a test and promises to develop into a lively legal question.

EMBEZZLER "BROKE"

IS HELD FOR TRIAL.

Penniless and without friends to whom he could appeal for financial aid, Harry M. Yarwood, the teller who is charged with embezzlement approximately $1000 from the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank, told Justice Forbes yesterday afternoon that he wants to be represented at his trial by the Public Defender. The young man was held to answer to the Superior Court.

Yarwood was arrested last week in Vancouver and returned to this city yesterday by Detective Jones. He told the officer he is guilty of taking the money and will throw himself upon the mercy of the court.

The young man came to Los Angeles nearly three years ago from New York City, where he had a similar position in a bank. He declared yesterday he was never stoned in his life until a few months ago, when he took a check presented to the bank by one of its customers. It was for his mother, and Yarwood said he knew the customer would go to law to get his several weeks, and he thought he would use the money during the absence.

The prisoner said the plan worked out well in the first instance that after he decided to try it again and after awhile the practice became a habit.

It was the fear of future detection that impelled the thief, he told the officers. Every day he was in the office of the time when he would be found out and it finally weighed so heavily upon his mind that he determined to leave the country.

When he did depart, he declared, he did not have enough money to purchase a ticket to Canada and he was absolutely "broke" when the Vancouver officers arrested him.

Yarwood has a wife and a son in Vancouver, but he did not return yesterday, but it is said Mrs. Yarwood intends to do all she can to assist him.

CHILDREN HEIRS OF GREAT-GRANDMOTHER.

Glen Alfred Witham, 6 years old, and Elva Jane Witham, 2, are the sole heirs of Mrs. Delilah Jane Villers, whose will was filed for probate yesterday.

She died at San Francisco last Sunday. She owned a lot at Long Beach worth $500. Its acquisition is the story of a struggle to scrape the money together.

The will was written by Mrs. Villers, who was the great-grandmother of the children, to hold the property as their own without any guardian or their father to have anything to say about it.

The lot is to be divided among the children, uncle John J. Schmid, until he should receive the money to be placed in a bank for them, to be used at a mature age.

"I want this to go to the children," she wrote. "It is all I have for them, but it is the best I can do. I have some to show them that set it for I have worked hard for it and have saved it for them. I pray the Lord they get it."

Mr. Schmid declined to act as executor under the will, and Mrs. Lizzie E. Davis, Mrs. Villers' daughter, asks to be appointed.

EXECUTOR SUSPENDED.

BONDING COMPANY ASKS IT.

On the application of the Commonwealth Bonding and Casualty Insurance Company of Canada, Presiding Judge Works signed an order suspending J. Edward Parrott as executor of the $11,245.81 estate of Julia H. Ten Eyck. The application, presented by Mr. Daniel Danzig, was accompanied by the affidavit of a agent of the bonding company which made charges involving the funds of the estate.

The bonding company requested to be released from further responsibility on account of any future acts of the executor, and asked that citation be issued requiring him to give further security in lieu of the bonds.

Mr. Parrott, who filed the petition for the probate of Mrs. Ten Eyck's will, told the court he was incompetent.

The bonding company further requested that an order be issued suspending Mr. Parrott's letters testamentary and if he failed in executing new and additional bonds that his powers as executor be suspended.

COURT PARAGRAPHS.

PROCEEDINGS IN BRIEF.

STOCK SUIT.

In a suit filed yesterday by Ernest Pickering against Maxwell, Edwards & Co., State Investment Company of Santa Monica, a demand is made for $400 as liquidated damages, under Section 324 of the Civil Code. Mr. Pickering alleges that Secretary Gunders refused to return on the books of the company fifty-three shares of stock or issue to him the stock, which he says he owns.

RECONCILIATION.

HUBBUT NOT AN ANGEL.

"He promised to be good and I promised to remember he is a man and not an angel," explained Mrs. Vincent H. Barnikel to Judge Works yesterday, when it was announced that the couple had effected a reconciliation. And thus it came about that the Barnikels are united instead of estranged, each other in Mrs. Barnikel's divorce suit.

"We have agreed to forget the past," stated Mr. Barnikel, "and we would like you to sign the order dismissing her suit."

The couple had compiled and conciliated the Barnikels.

JUST A LITTLE ACT OF GRATITUDE.

She entered Department Ten yesterday as usual, and the girls at the counter cut out a few minutes later Miss Trella Irene Anderson. The metamorphosis was brought about by Judge Works, who granted Miss Ellin's petition to change her name to Anderson. At the bottom of the change was gratitude—and a step-father.

M. S. Anderson married Miss Ellin's mother in 1900. Trella was then 3 years old, and she was brought up in the home of her stepfather, who was not adopted in this case. Trella was loved and cared for as though she was Mr. Anderson's flesh and blood. She was supported and educated him.

Mr. Parrott will be given an opportunity of defending himself from the charges made in the affidavit.

CHANGES NAME.

ACT OF GRATITUDE.

She entered Department Ten yesterday as usual, and the girls at the counter cut out a few minutes later Miss Trella Irene Anderson. The metamorphosis was brought about by Judge Works, who granted Miss Ellin's petition to change her name to Anderson. At the bottom of the change was gratitude—and a step-father.

M. S. Anderson married Miss Ellin's mother in 1900. Trella was then 3 years old, and she was brought up in the home of her stepfather, who was not adopted in this case. Trella was loved and cared for as though she was Mr. Anderson's flesh and blood.

She knew no other father because the real father never apparently communicated with her and was lost to sight.

So out of gratitude to Papa Anderson, Miss Trella desired his name. Her brother, Harry Ellin, resides at No. 1120 Mott street; brother Oliver Ellis lives at Burbank.

TRUSTEE NEEDED.

TRUST COMPANY DEFUNCT.

The Consolidated Water Company of Pomona made application to the courts yesterday for the appointment of a trustee, under a deed of trust and a mortgage, to fill a vacancy caused by the passing out of the State Loan and Trust Company. To secure the payment of $175,000 bonds, executed to the State Loan and Trust Company, as trustee, a deed of trust and a mortgage which constituted a loan upon the real and personal property of the Consolidated.

July 8, 1911, the State Loan and Trust Company changed its name to the State Bank and Trust Company and the term of life under the character of the bonds was three years. The term expired April 25, 1914, and the corporation states that the corporation became defunct, with no provision made for the discharge of its trustee.

MANUFACTURED BY BOWERS RUBBER WORKS.

SEATTLE - SAN FRANCISCO - LOS ANGELES

MADE IN U.S.A.

© 1915 Bowers Rubber Works

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works

Seattle - San Francisco - Los Angeles

Manufactured by Bowers Rubber Works